

Today

Two Birthdays
30,000 vs. 130,000,000
Sure, I Did It
Union Racketeers

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyists, as you know, are the most important men in the world. They are the ones who make the world go round. They are the ones who make the world a better place. They are the ones who make the world a more beautiful place. They are the ones who make the world a more interesting place. They are the ones who make the world a more exciting place. They are the ones who make the world a more wonderful place. They are the ones who make the world a more amazing place. They are the ones who make the world a more incredible place. They are the ones who make the world a more unbelievable place. They are the ones who make the world a more extraordinary place. They are the ones who make the world a more remarkable place. They are the ones who make the world a more notable place. They are the ones who make the world a more prominent place. They are the ones who make the world a more distinguished place. They are the ones who make the world a more illustrious place. They are the ones who make the world a more famous place. They are the ones who make the world a more renowned place. They are the ones who make the world a more celebrated place. They are the ones who make the world a more honored place. They are the ones who make the world a more revered place. They are the ones who make the world a more respected place. They are the ones who make the world a more admired place. They are the ones who make the world a more appreciated place. They are the ones who make the world a more valued place. They are the ones who make the world a more cherished place. They are the ones who make the world a more treasured place. They are the ones who make the world a more beloved place. They are the ones who make the world a more loved place. They are the ones who make the world a more adored place. They are the ones who make the world a more worshipped place. They are the ones who make the world a more revered place. They are the ones who make the world a more respected place. They are the ones who make the world a more admired place. They are the ones who make the world a more appreciated place. They are the ones who make the world a more valued place. They are the ones who make the world a more cherished place. They are the ones who make the world a more treasured place. They are the ones who make the world a more beloved place. They are the ones who make the world a more loved place. They are the ones who make the world a more adored place. They are the ones who make the world a more worshipped place.

Day before yesterday Mussolini celebrated his 52d birthday. You may spend a profitable three minutes contrasting those two leaders of men in your imagination's eye. Henry Ford has made millions of people independent of the law of gravitation. History will tell exactly what Mussolini has done. His test lies in the future.

President Jacobo of Oglethorpe University, writing for Universal Service, wonders whether "Mussolini to America" could have become a Henry Ford, or Henry Ford in Europe, could have made a good dictator.

In both cases the answer is NO.

Moscow supplies information about Communist organizations in the United States, made public by Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist organization in this country. Mr. Browder tells a Moscow audience:

Less than 10 per cent of Communist party members in 1930 were American born. In 1930 the percentage is now 40 per cent. In 1930 there were fewer than 100 Negroes in the Communist ranks; now there are more than 2000; more than 500 made up of 4000 members in factories and plants, where more than 100 million workers are employed.

Representatives of Communism in the United States have certainly not been idle. At the same time, it is shown that there are, altogether, only 30,000 regular members of the Communist party in this country. They ought not to be able to "throw off their chains," "rise, throw off their chains," and overthrow a government of 130,000,000 without considerable difficulty.

"Oh, well, I might as well get it over with. Sure, I killed him."

Thus International News Service reports the blunt confession of Evelyn Smith, once a hollywood "honky-tonk" dancer. For a promised reward of $500, which she did not get, she murdered Ervin J. Lang, first married him, then, holding either under his nose, then strangling him with a cord made sure. Then she cut him up.

That is the most horrible, but not the strangest part of that particular American murder story. The murdered man's wife had recently died. His mother-in-law, Blanche Dunkel, admits that she bribed the burglar to murder her son-in-law for her last-minute love for Lang and intense jealousy because of his approaching marriage to another woman.

Rudyard Kipling seems not to have exaggerated in that poem about "the female of the species." Fortunately, that species of female is dead.

Thomas B. Dewey, chosen to fight racketeering in New York, says in a broadcast:

"The criminal underworld plays no favorites. It preys on the public, on industry and on labor alike. Organized labor has been one of its most recent and most tragic victims. Many originally honest and sound labor unions have been slowly but surely infected with the virus of organized crime. Today, certain corruptive leaders operate as extortionists, with upon industry and upon members of their own unions."

THE WEATHER
Generally fair, continued warmer tonight and tomorrow; moderate southwest to westerly winds.
High tide 12:30 a. m.; 12:40 p. m.
Low tide 1:30 a. m.; 1:40 p. m.
Light air variable 8-16.
AVERAGE TEMPERATURES
Boston..... 72
Washington..... 72
New York..... 72
Chicago..... 72
Los Angeles..... 72

VOL. XXXII. No. 112

BOSTON AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

The only Boston evening newspaper with three direct news services—Associated Press, International News Service and Universal Service

Copyright, 1935, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.
Printed at Boston Postoffice.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1935 PRICE 2 CENTS

SPORTS
STOCKS
CLOSING PRICES

Berger Gets Letter but Dodgers Win First

Copyright, 1935, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.
Printed at Boston Postoffice.

CURLEY TAX BILL PASSED BY SENATE

By BERNARD J. DOHERTY

The Senate today passed Gov. Curley's bill for a 10 per cent surtax on the state income tax, and passed it.

One more vote remains to be taken—at the engrossment stage, tomorrow—but victory for the measure was assured by today's test.

It was the second notable legislative triumph for the Governor in two days, the other being an advance yesterday of the $20,000,000 bond issue bill.

The House has already passed the income tax bill, which provides for a 10 per cent increase in the amount of tax which individuals and corporations are paying this year on last year's income.

The Senate had rejected the bill Monday, but after a second vote today, 18 to 12.

The bill was passed by its third reading, 18 to 12. Two "nays" were recorded on Page 2, Column 6.

Suffolk Downs Chart

Nineteenth Day, July 31, 1935, Summer Meeting

Weather Chart: Track Fair, Sea B, Wind S.W. 10-15, Clouds 1-3, Visibility 10-15, Temperature 72-78, Humidity 70-80, Barometer 30.0-30.2.

FIRST RACE: The Newmarket, 11:00 a.m. 200 yards, purse $100. 1st three-quarters and up, starting. Start and from (Bab) sign, was easily, 2nd 1:12.2, 3rd 1:12.2, 4th 1:12.2, 5th 1:12.2, 6th 1:12.2, 7th 1:12.2, 8th 1:12.2, 9th 1:12.2, 10th 1:12.2.

BLUE CATS PAID—DROMEDARY..... 17.50 1.00 5.00
BLUE CAT..... 2.00 1.00 5.00

Second—Sighting Bar 100 (R. Howell) 14.80, 7.20, 5.60; Cash Book 107 (J. Deering) 6.40, 5.00; Brownbeats 105 (J. Wagner) 6.60, 5.12-5.94. Also ran—Mannery, J. Take Walk, September Child, Terry On, ohn Tio, Splittemake, Narise, San Rafael, Flower Show.

George Roars at Berger Homers as Dare to Danno Braves Lose

Professing he was "robbed" in his little bout with Danno O'Mahoney at Braves Field last night, Ed Don George refused to give up the fight. He said he would fight the world's worst fighter, and he would win.

"Let him come and get it if he dares," George told Paul Bowser, promoter of the bout, when Bowser asked him to give up.

"O'Mahoney was counted out before Jimmy Braddock," George said. "I heard Braddock reach the final count of 20 and say, 'He's out.'"

"I was amazed when Braddock started counting when I was out of the ring. And I was angry because the fact that he had already counted out O'Mahoney when he reached 20 on me."

SOCK TALK; PRESIDENT'S TART REPLY

By International News Service

Washington, July 31—Organized business today transferred its campaign against President Roosevelt's tax policy to the Senate finance committee.

Noel Sargent of New York, tax economist of the National Association of Manufacturers, branded the President's policy and the $20,000,000 House ways and means committee bill as "unjust and unsound."

He declared any policy of taxation must first insure the government cut its expenditures.

In preparation for his drive to pass the tax bill in the House this week the ways and means committee filed its formal report.

ROOSEVELT BAPS THIRTIY President Roosevelt unavailingly advanced additional arguments for a measure that will reach into the ranks of the very wealthy.

Without discussing the rates proposed in the pending bill, Mr. Roosevelt, in his press conference today, declared "the thirty-third article in the United States Constitution" is in effect a tax on the wealthy.

Careers Kayo Cupid

By Associated Press

Berlin, July 31—The municipal press and propaganda office today warned Jews not to come to Berlin.

The warning read: "It has been recently noted that, despite difficult circumstances, there has been an excessive influx of strangers, especially Jewish elements, into Berlin."

"Such persons will be sent to public asylums where they will receive the barest necessities and will be sent as soon as possible out of the city."

"The most urgent warning is therefore addressed to non-Aryans against coming to Berlin."

The Berlin decree is the sharpest of such recent warnings throughout the Reich.

Few have exploited what measures are provided for the Jews forced out of their own towns or told they cannot live in particular communities.

NON-ARYANS ARE WARNED 'STAY OUT'

By Associated Press

Berlin, July 31—The municipal press and propaganda office today warned Jews not to come to Berlin.

The warning read: "It has been recently noted that, despite difficult circumstances, there has been an excessive influx of strangers, especially Jewish elements, into Berlin."

"Such persons will be sent to public asylums where they will receive the barest necessities and will be sent as soon as possible out of the city."

"The most urgent warning is therefore addressed to non-Aryans against coming to Berlin."

The Berlin decree is the sharpest of such recent warnings throughout the Reich.

Few have exploited what measures are provided for the Jews forced out of their own towns or told they cannot live in particular communities.

Sail through beautiful Cape Cod Canal, Reduced Rates Thursday: coupon on Page 6

PEACE WARMS POWERS AS GEVALEMA'S PEACE

800,000 TROOPS TO GUARD ITALY, HIS THREAT

Premier Benito Mussolini, in an amazing interview on the eve of the League of Nations "showdown" on the Italian-Ethiopian war in Geneva today, flings a real warlike challenge at Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia and at the same time warns European neighbors that he is planning 800,000 motorized troops on Italy's strategic frontiers "for any emergency."

By PIERRE BENOIT
Noted Author and Journalist

(Special copyright, 1933, by Universal Service and Press Bureau-Bureau Rome, July 21.—The Emperor of Ethiopia knows my resources as well as my intentions. It is for him to study the risks of such an adventure and, knowing the risks, to reach a decision.

With those words—a final ultimatum to Emperor Haile Selassie, given in an exclusive interview on the eve of the League of Nations "crisis meeting" of the League of Nations council in Geneva today—Premier Mussolini of Italy told me emphatically and with challenge the vigor that he will carry out his plan to extend Italy's colonies in Africa.

At the same time, I Duce warned European nations he will not permit his African ventures to upset Italy's influence on the Italian front. The American would watch his complete army in Africa with 200 or 300,000 more troops ranged along Italy's European frontiers to prevent any surprise move against Italy that might endanger Europe's equilibrium.

CHANCES RISK
As we talked in the marvelous room where he is located, I never felt more timid or awkward. I no longer saw the room but only the extraordinary smiling personage before me, as he said:

"The case of war, the chance I risk is that of finding Ethiopia entirely united under its sovereign. You understand that, you, that I forecast this difficulty as I have foreseen others, but that I also foresee the means of overcoming it."

"As everyone knows, I have assembled in Africa much material and many soldiers, and will send them double—triple—four more if I see the necessity. I am not a man to do things by halves. It is for the Negro of Ethiopia to reach a decision."

Thus Mussolini spoke—slowly, weighing and examining each word above all, strongly calm, disdaining even any gesture that might emphasize his will. I asked him:

"You will not think it too bold to be influenced by the efforts, the good efforts of this or that friendly ally?"

"He fixed me with a look, saying: 'I understand that you are trying to say, but don't take the trouble. My recent conversations with Captain Eden (British cabinet minister for League of Nations affairs) did not leave him with any illusions.'"

"Any cordiality," I asked him, "here is something that might interest you: France does not want to dominate Africa, France only desires peace, and ability to live and work in peace."

$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$

Twice Yearly!

Underwear $1

Two groups of RAYON UNDERWEAR 34c and 50c ea.

Silk Stockings

OUR REGULAR $1.50 all silk stockings and semi-service silk stockings; also other service weights.

Curtains

Four Great Groups Usually $1.25 to $1.97

Candlewick Curtains, extra wide 60 inches, with 6-inch ruffles

CHINTZ DRESSERIES, rich and plain colors

TAILORED CURTAINS, acorns and marigolds

COTTAGE SETS much higher or priced quality

At Thresher's for Men!

Fine Thresher Neckties... 3 for $1

Summer Waist Ties... 3 for $1

Custom Made Neckties... 3 for $1

Fine Quality Lisle Hosiery... 5 for $1

$$$ FABRICS—1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 even 10 yds. for $1 $$$

What Church Wins Him?

By Associated Press

Westfield, July 21.—The funeral of former Senator Frederick Huntington Gillet, who died in Springfield Hospital early today, will take place Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the city home in Court street.

This announcement was made by Mr. Gillet's sister, Miss Lucy D. Gillet, who is in charge of arrangements and who makes her home here.

While details are incomplete, Miss Gillet said the services would be simple and that burial would be in the family lot in Pine Hill cemetery, where in Gillet's parents' graves rest.

Mr. Gillet, who was 83-years-old, a Republican of the old guard, had served Massachusetts in Congress for 18 years.

The former Senator is survived by his widow, Mrs. William Gillet, widow of Rockwood Hoar of Worcester; his sister Lucy, widow of a Westfield, and a brother, Arthur H. Gillet, professor emeritus of Harvard theological Seminary, Hartford, Ct.

A RARE DISEASE
Dr. James A. Seaman said death was due to leukemia, a blood deficiency, very rare in his opinion.

The former senator had been in poor health since the death of his wife, who died in 1928, and spending his winters at Santa Barbara, Calif., since he left the Senate.

He divided his time between his family home in Westfield, where he spent his summers, and his winter home in Santa Barbara.

CHAMP CLARK SUCCESSOR
In 1919 he succeeded the late Champ Clark as speaker of the House, where he had served since 1887. He was the first Massachusetts man chosen speaker since the Civil War.

After six years as speaker, he entered the Massachusetts senatorial fight and defeated U. S. Charles W. Bartlett. About 40 weeks were heard.

Indemnity was returned by the determined by the jury, which was returned until further notice.

In connection with the probe, officers of the Springfield Police, who acted as a small liaison for the players during their flight, then "fingered" the police in the Springfield hotel and testified against them in their trial.

The newspapermen are Lawrence W. Goldberg and Joseph F. Dinan, neither of whom were a part of the investigation.

The list of reward-seekers now stands at 22. Commissioner of Public Safety Paul G. Kirk will decide the issue.

'LEGAL BOOKIE'
Waits on Court

Judge Charles H. Donahue in court today took under advisement the petition for a writ of mandamus filed last week to compel Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook to issue a charter to the "Legalized" Parrot Service, Inc.

The petition was filed by William H. McMeaters of Cambridge, Joseph W. Deberry of Boston and Lucius Graham of Brooklyn.

Attorney Edwidge H. Anderson argued the case and requested an adjournment of the trial to August 1. He claimed that the purpose of the corporation is legal.

MAN ARRESTED
As Fugitive

Providence, July 21.—John Baker, 60, of this city, was arrested here for New Haven, Ct., police as a fugitive from justice. He pleaded not guilty and was released in $500 bail for trial August 9.

CROSSLEY SIFTS
Mashpee Baby Case

Harwich, July 21.—District Attorney William C. Crossley of Fall River is personally investigating several clues to the identity of the abandoned baby found in the Mashpee woods recently.

SCHOOL HERO TAKEN BY G-MEN

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

TORSO PAIR
Reportedly Indicted

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

MONEY ON STEPS

The following day, a code message, "Salem shoes are ready at Salem," appeared in Salem papers. This was an agreed-upon message.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. O'Donnell received the second call while sitting alone beside her and was told to leave the money on the postoffice steps on Monday, instead of at the market where it had been left and watched.

Nothing came of the second trap and yesterday, at 4:30, the third call was made. Agents were in the Salem telephone exchange and the call was immediately traced.

United States Attorney Ford's only comment in Boston on the case was as follows:

"I shall take personal charge of the prosecution in the Salem extortion case."

"We have had many of these cases in this office in the past year or two, and it is my opinion that the only way to put a stop to this extortion business, once and for all, is to prosecute these cases vigorously and quickly."

STAR IN TWO SCHOOLS

Gallo, now married and the father of a child, lives in Peabody. He is the son of Giuseppe Gallo, a fruit dealer in Front street, Salem, and has recently been employed by his father.

He captained the 1921 football team at Salem High and then transferred to St. John's preparatory school, where he starred in both football and basketball, receiving general recognition as an exciting general recognition as a basketball player in schoolboy ranks.

The letters were sent to the Poor house at 27 Chestnut street, Salem on July 3 and July 8.

The first phone call was made last Friday; the second Saturday and the third yesterday. He was merely taken for questioning.

SENATE PASSES GIRLE PLAN FOR SURTAX

Continued From First Page

also recorded, two Republicans for the bill and two opposed.

Senator Donald W. Nicholson, of Wareham, who resigned in a huff as Republican floor leader a few days ago, when President Moore broke a party lineup on an important measure, switched over in favor of the tax bill today.

Nicholson led the fight for the bill, thereby causing an uproar in which Senator Arthur H. Hays, Republican, of Newton, challenged him to explain.

Thereupon Nicholson said the money had to be found somewhere, and he did not think Governor Nichols could be blamed for a $1,000,000 increase in expenses due to salary cut in the Senate and $1,000,000 increase in tax would be increased only 50 cents.

Senator Henry Parkman of the Back Bay, leading the opposition, offered a blood-sucking amendment, but the people were being "flooded," but he met defeat on all his moves.

BANKS EXEMPT
A bill exempt was moved to include savings banks in the new savings department of trust companies among the corporations which must pay the increase but the Senate, which refused to accept it, said this is the only difference between the bill as accepted in the Senate and the one passed by the House.

$625,000 PROBE
On Stocks Ends

Probe by the Federal grand jury of the sale of $625,000 worth of Polymor stock in Massachusetts has been completed, according to Assistant United States Attorney Charles W. Bartlett. About 40 witnesses were heard.

Indemnity was returned by the determined by the jury, which was returned until further notice.

In connection with the probe, officers of the Springfield Police, who acted as a small liaison for the players during their flight, then "fingered" the police in the Springfield hotel and testified against them in their trial.

The newspapermen are Lawrence W. Goldberg and Joseph F. Dinan, neither of whom were a part of the investigation.

The list of reward-seekers now stands at 22. Commissioner of Public Safety Paul G. Kirk will decide the issue.

'LEGAL BOOKIE'
Waits on Court

Judge Charles H. Donahue in court today took under advisement the petition for a writ of mandamus filed last week to compel Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook to issue a charter to the "Legalized" Parrot Service, Inc.

The petition was filed by William H. McMeaters of Cambridge, Joseph W. Deberry of Boston and Lucius Graham of Brooklyn.

Attorney Edwidge H. Anderson argued the case and requested an adjournment of the trial to August 1. He claimed that the purpose of the corporation is legal.

MAN ARRESTED
As Fugitive

Providence, July 21.—John Baker, 60, of this city, was arrested here for New Haven, Ct., police as a fugitive from justice. He pleaded not guilty and was released in $500 bail for trial August 9.

CROSSLEY SIFTS
Mashpee Baby Case

Harwich, July 21.—District Attorney William C. Crossley of Fall River is personally investigating several clues to the identity of the abandoned baby found in the Mashpee woods recently.

SCHOOL HERO TAKEN BY G-MEN

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

TORSO PAIR
Reportedly Indicted

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

MONEY ON STEPS

The following day, a code message, "Salem shoes are ready at Salem," appeared in Salem papers. This was an agreed-upon message.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. O'Donnell received the second call while sitting alone beside her and was told to leave the money on the postoffice steps on Monday, instead of at the market where it had been left and watched.

Nothing came of the second trap and yesterday, at 4:30, the third call was made. Agents were in the Salem telephone exchange and the call was immediately traced.

United States Attorney Ford's only comment in Boston on the case was as follows:

"I shall take personal charge of the prosecution in the Salem extortion case."

"We have had many of these cases in this office in the past year or two, and it is my opinion that the only way to put a stop to this extortion business, once and for all, is to prosecute these cases vigorously and quickly."

STAR IN TWO SCHOOLS

Gallo, now married and the father of a child, lives in Peabody. He is the son of Giuseppe Gallo, a fruit dealer in Front street, Salem, and has recently been employed by his father.

He captained the 1921 football team at Salem High and then transferred to St. John's preparatory school, where he starred in both football and basketball, receiving general recognition as an exciting general recognition as a basketball player in schoolboy ranks.

The letters were sent to the Poor house at 27 Chestnut street, Salem on July 3 and July 8.

The first phone call was made last Friday; the second Saturday and the third yesterday. He was merely taken for questioning.

Today

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Continued From First Page

price of completion of their buildings.

"There was never the slightest improvement in the wages paid in the workhouse, my working condition on the job when the men went back to work after the payoff to the leader."

"Members of the union starved to vain on the street during the shakedown. Those members of the union who dared to oppose him, they numbered about 500, received prompt discipline. They were kept out of work for years and were assaulted if they opened their mouths at meetings."

These statements should interest the people of the United States, and particularly honest union men.

Fortunately, Mr. Dewey will have the co-operation of real labor men.

Mr. Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, said recently:

"We are against racketeering within our organization. I will co-operate with any effort to eliminate racketeering in unions under our jurisdiction, no matter where it strikes."

"That union men should be sold out by their own leaders and used as instruments for blackmarketing without their knowledge, is not a pleasant thought."

The British forbade shipment of arms from England to Abyssinia, also shipments from England to Italy. Annoyed, the Emperor of Ethiopia declines the British legation at Addis Ababa. The British will send their own guards. They have a way of protecting their nationalities.

The whole thing comes now before the League of Nations. England suggests a compromise by giving Italians "guidance" of Ethiopian destiny, with "peaceful penetration" of Ethiopia by Italian officials. That any official action to that effect will displease Japan, which is already doing the "peaceful penetrating," without waiting, and selling goods abundantly in Abyssinia.

Paris fashions reflect the present war crisis. According to Universal Service, "costs are fastened with brass-ties, like guard's dress uniforms. One can have the cavalry cut, a military collar, high collars are borrowed from soldiers' uniforms, skirts made to look as much as possible like men's military trousers."

MILLEN REWARD ASKED BY SAUL

An erstwhile pal of the executed players and two Boston newspapers were listed today among the claimants to the $22,000 reward offered for the apprehension of the Needham bank killers, Murnon and Irving Miller and Abraham M. Rascor.

The "pal" was Saul Messenger, Conroy Island radio man, one-time Phum of Arthur Miller, who acted as a small liaison for the players during their flight, then "fingered" the police in the Springfield hotel and testified against them in their trial.

The newspapermen are Lawrence W. Goldberg and Joseph F. Dinan, neither of whom were a part of the investigation.

The list of reward-seekers now stands at 22. Commissioner of Public Safety Paul G. Kirk will decide the issue.

'LEGAL BOOKIE'
Waits on Court

Judge Charles H. Donahue in court today took under advisement the petition for a writ of mandamus filed last week to compel Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook to issue a charter to the "Legalized" Parrot Service, Inc.

The petition was filed by William H. McMeaters of Cambridge, Joseph W. Deberry of Boston and Lucius Graham of Brooklyn.

Attorney Edwidge H. Anderson argued the case and requested an adjournment of the trial to August 1. He claimed that the purpose of the corporation is legal.

MAN ARRESTED
As Fugitive

Providence, July 21.—John Baker, 60, of this city, was arrested here for New Haven, Ct., police as a fugitive from justice. He pleaded not guilty and was released in $500 bail for trial August 9.

CROSSLEY SIFTS
Mashpee Baby Case

Harwich, July 21.—District Attorney William C. Crossley of Fall River is personally investigating several clues to the identity of the abandoned baby found in the Mashpee woods recently.

SCHOOL HERO TAKEN BY G-MEN

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

TORSO PAIR
Reportedly Indicted

Chicago, July 21 (AP).—True bills were reported voted today charging Mrs. Blanche Dunkel and Mrs. Evelyn Smith with the "swamp murder" of Edwin Lang, Mrs. Dunkel's son-in-law.

Charles S. Dougherty, attorney in charge of the case, came out of the grand jury room with Mrs. Dunkel, still witness present, and he was followed by Edwin J. Spira, indictment specialist, with word that the true bills had been voted.

Mrs. Dunkel, once more composed, smiled as she was led away and said: "I feel much better now that I have told my story."

MONEY ON STEPS

The following day, a code message, "Salem shoes are ready at Salem," appeared in Salem papers. This was an agreed-upon message.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. O'Donnell received the second call while sitting alone beside her and was told to leave the money on the postoffice steps on Monday, instead of at the market where it had been left and watched.

Nothing came of the second trap and yesterday, at 4:30, the third call was made. Agents were in the Salem telephone exchange and the call was immediately traced.

United States Attorney Ford's only comment in Boston on the case was as follows:

"I shall take personal charge of the prosecution in the Salem extortion case."

"We have had many of these cases in this office in the past year or two, and it is my opinion that the only way to put a stop to this extortion business, once and for all, is to prosecute these cases vigorously and quickly."

STAR IN TWO SCHOOLS

Gallo, now married and the father of a child, lives in Peabody. He is the son of Giuseppe Gallo, a fruit dealer in Front street, Salem, and has recently been employed by his father.

He captained the 1921 football team at Salem High and then transferred to St. John's preparatory school, where he starred in both football and basketball, receiving general recognition as an exciting general recognition as a basketball player in schoolboy ranks.

The letters were sent to the Poor house at 27 Chestnut street, Salem on July 3 and July 8.

The first phone call was made last Friday; the second Saturday and the third yesterday. He was merely taken for questioning.

Paralysis Scourge Back

City Doctor Tells:

WHAT TO DO

INFANTILE PARALYSIS IS PREVALENT IN BOSTON. THIS ADMISSION WAS MADE TODAY BY DR. FREDERICK J. BAILEY, IN CHARGE OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES FOR BOSTON'S HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

With this came announcement the dread malady had claimed its first Greater Boston victim, with the death at Children's Hospital of nine-year-old Betty McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. McLean of Lynn.

Coupled with the admission of the advance of the disease, which, with two cases reported today, now totals 21, principally in Roxbury and Dorchester, came an admonition to all parents:

"DO NOT BECOME PANICRY"

Dr. Bailey said: "We must face this issue squarely—and sanely. There is only one way to combat this malady successfully before it spreads. That is to know the methods—and apply them. "There are two ways in which infantile paralysis makes itself known.

"In 65 per cent of the cases the child shows a languoriness for about two days. It is frequently associated. It has an otherwise unexplainable rise in temperature. It may or may not have a sore throat.

"The second day there is a tenderness in the neck. The third day the paralysis strikes. "More delicate and more because parents are often in a state of suspense, it is the second way, in which about 15 per cent of the cases develop:

What to Do

"In this, after two days of the same symptoms, the child apparently recovers, and after four days—the seventh day, the symptoms reappear, and on the ninth day, the paralysis strikes the victim."

Dr. Bailey gave the following simple rules for helping to prevent further spread of the disease:

- 1.—Call a physician at the very first appearance of any of the symptoms described. It is far better to call a doctor needlessly than to take a chance with the paralysis. If your child runs a temperature, is nauseated, or complains of a tender neck—call a physician at once!
- 2.—Keep your children away from crowds of all kinds.
- 3.—DO NOT DRINK OR ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN TO DRINK FROM DRINKING CUPS USED BY OTHER PERSONS.
- 4.—Keep the children away from exposure to sneezing, coughs or apparent colds.
- 5.—Let them go bathing—but NOT at crowded beaches.

Take Added Care

All of the 21 cases now in progress have been reported since July 18. In one family in Quincy street, Roxbury, three children have been stricken.

Public health nurses are now out checking up every person who may have had personal contact with any of the cases reported, and a close watch is being kept on all who can be discovered.

By these means, employed by the Boston public health department in the outbreak of 1918, the epidemic was kept down to 42 cases. Last summer only three cases were reported, and the same care in observation of all who contacted them was observed.

B. & M. VETERAN Dies in Florida

St. Petersburg, Fla., July 31 (AP)—William Merritt, 91, retired railroad man who started his career in 1861 with the Boston & Maine railroad, died here today. He was spending the summer here.

Mr. Merritt was born in Salem, Mass., in 1844. He retired from railroad activity in 1911, as superintendent of the Portland division.

Dr. Merritt's Name: Merritt

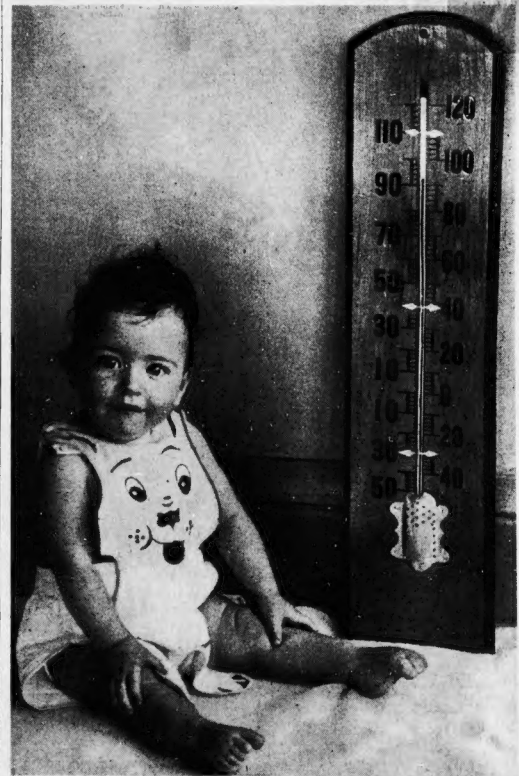

ROCKY POINT SHORE DINNERS
ALL YOU CAN EAT
12:00 to 2:00 P.M. ONLY
15c

93 in Shade Leaves Quin Cool, Happy

NICE LITTLE TALK BY JOLLY BABY

"Well, well, well. So it's 93 in the shade! I hardly could have known it, dressed in this cool outfit," opines Cecile Dionne, bright-eyed member of the "quins." However, I see no reason for becoming startled by the information, because in the first place I can't count up to 93, and in the second place, I can't even count. So there! (World Copyright, 1935, NEA Service, Inc.)

"Hello, Mister! Want me to look at the birdie? What's that? You say that it's 93 in the shade? Oh, you don't mean window shade. I couldn't get you at first. If you mean to say it's hot, just say so. I never heard such language before. 93 in the shade! And say, Cecile wants to know, 'where's that birdie?' More pictures of those happy-go-lucky, 'quins' will appear Thursday and Friday.

FIEND Mutilates DOCTOR NEWLYWED IS RIVAL'S VICTIM

By Associated Press
Chicago, July 31—Kidnaped and brought by automobile to a lonely wooded spot in Chicago's south side, Dr. Walter J. Bauer, 38, of Cleveland, bridegroom of these weeks, today was subjected to mutilation which cost him life.

Five hours after the operation, he died at Jackson Park Hospital. Before his death he told police he had been abducted at Ann Arbor, Mich., by a man he had met in a hotel there.

Dr. Bauer's bride, Marie, was notified at Laughlin Hospital at Kirksville, Mo., where she is a nurse. She was leaving at once for Chicago.

Detective Howard Doyle said Dr. Bauer named as a suspect a man whom Mrs. Bauer had often said was intimately jealous because of the marriage.

IN GREAT PAIN
At 1:30 a. m. attendance at a filling station saw a small coupe rolling slowly into the driveway. A man leaped from the car and disappeared.

From the automobile the attendant heard moans. They found Dr. Bauer, bound hand and foot, in great pain, and hurried him to the Park hospital.

There Dr. Bauer, weak from loss of blood, dictated a telegram to his bride. It read: "Suddenly ill in Chicago. Come at once."

Weekly he told his story. As related by the detective, it was: "When Dr. Bauer strolled into the Jennings House, near Ann Arbor, last night, he fell into conversation with a man he had previously seen there. The stranger asked to accompany him on an auto trip to the city."

They had gone only a short distance when the stranger drew a revolver and said: "You had better do what I tell you, because I am desperate. I am wanted all over the country and if I am caught it's the end of me."

"The man then ordered Bauer to drive to Chicago."

ARRIVING IN CHICAGO, the stranger directed his unwilling chauffeur to drive to a lonely section west of a cemetery. There Dr. Bauer was commanded to stop.

The stranger tied him hand and foot with twisted rags and ordered a physician. As the man began the operation, Dr. Bauer lost consciousness.

Next month Bauer nevertheless managed to describe his assailant and advance what he said was the only reason he could assign for the attack: jealousy on the part of the former suitor for his wife's affection.

Police immediately issued orders for the arrest of the man named by Dr. Bauer.

The assailant was described as about 27 years old, five feet ten inches tall, and weighing 150 pounds. He was of light complexion and had blue eyes.

SLAIN Doctor Warned, Torn Telegram Shows

By International News Service, Ann Arbor, Mich., July 31—New mystery today was injected into the fatal mutilation of Walter J. Bauer, 38-year-old University of Michigan graduate student, in Chicago, when police discovered a torn telegram in Bauer's room here.

Picked together, the telegram read: "No foundation for accusations. Doctor George's reactions quite unfavorable. Louise has not been told. Square yourself by all means with her."

The "Louise" mentioned was believed to be Bauer's bride.

BRIDE FEARED Next Victim of Knife Fiend

By Associated Press
Kirksville, Mo., July 31—Furious that the man who mutilated and killed her husband might come to her to harm her, police today drew a guard around Mrs. Louise Bauer and planned to hide her later in an obscure hotel.

Police here meanwhile investigated activities of a rejected suitor of Mrs. Bauer, who they said had threatened to kill himself.

Two friends of Dr. Bauer, Drs. Vernon Casner and Earl Laughlin, reported receiving word from Dr. Bauer that he was being trailed by a stranger and "suspected" some kind of a confidential game. He reported, they said, he had been unable to sleep recently because of it.

OTIS INFLUX LAID TO FROWNS OF ALBANY ON UNCLOTHED

Nude Deal

BARE FACT

N. Y. UNDRAPED CHASED HERE BY LAW

Those who peek declare the Rev. Isley Boone, former pastor who lost his flock because of his views (no pun), is presiding over the nudist colony at Otis in the Berkshires. In other words, it is said, it is he who is Mine Host to expatriated New York nudists.

Among the most famous of the lady nudists is Susie Wise, whose wedding in the altogether in New Jersey camp made most of the public prints at the time it was solemnized. Susie is believed one of those now hiding her nakedness among the sheltering pines of Otis privacy.

Otis, July 31—Natives hereabouts report hearing strange sounds of late—like the flutter of the wings of wild geese, flying south or north as the case may be.

But it isn't geese they hear. The season's wrong. There are those who think it's the rustle of the greenery disturbed by nudists fluttering over from New York state.

Massachusetts' first nudist colony in the Berkshires first came to fame a year ago. It has been escaping the limelight a good deal since, being a small and extremely exclusive affair.

But stories are to the effect that the uncovered rustic addled over in the west since having such a hard time since the new law, and West Haven, Conn., and New York, N. Y. colonies are practically bare now.

Lots of the nudists added down the Hudson and into Jersey. Lots more are expected to have joined up here at Otis.

When Dr. Isley Boone, the chief high factotum of nudism in America, is directing the colony here in person is somewhat of a secret, but he has been reported seen recently.

Dr. Boone is the same gentleman who lost his post as a minister of the gospel in Old Pond's Reformed Church at Catskill, N. Y., because of his anti-clerical proclivities.

Susie Wise, who made the headlines and most of the photographs in the nation's newspapers when she became a nudist bride, is said to be in one of the Jersey camps, but then she might be here.

The last time Susie had her picture taken was over in Newpalt. That was the day after the nudists.

Some Count

Paris, July 31 (AP)—When Mrs. Marie Jones Lavin, the daughter of the premier, married Count de Chateaufort, the nephew of the late Nicholas Longworth, in the near future her dowry, friends said today, would be 10,000 francs—about $160,000.

They said that although the family had not discussed the marriage settlement, that matter Mrs. Jones, an only child, will have one of the biggest dowries of modern times.

COOLED BY ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION
KRESGE'S
5 AND 10c

Shop in Comfort at OUR COOL STORE

IN CANS

So that you may shop more comfortably... so that you may enjoy coming here more often... we have installed an electric COOLING SYSTEM throughout this Kresge's and Sic store! NOW... no matter how hot it is outside, you can step into this delightfully cool Kresge store, and go from counter to counter in real comfort. And on every counter you will find those good Kresge values that every home needs... values that thrifty shoppers will instantly appreciate! Why not come to this Kresge store tomorrow... and SHOP IN COMFORT AT OUR COOL STORE.

KRESGE'S
5 AND 10c STORE
WASHINGTON STREET AT TEMPLE PLACE

CARDINAL'S 'RED ALLIANCE' PROVEN, NAZI CHARGE

Berlin, July 31—Nazi and Catholic authorities clashed over Communism today as the German government, oblivious to the rising tide of protest abroad, hurled the full force of its propaganda against race and religion.

Center of the new conflict was Michael Cardinal von Faulhaber, Catholic archbishop of Munich and Freiburg, whose formal denial of Nazi charges that the Catholic church is co-operating with Communism against the Nazi regime met with a new blast of accusations.

Cardinal Faulhaber met the charges with the following statement: "The Catholic church is strongly opposed to Communist activities, especially in the light of the bloody religious persecutions in Russia."

But the Nazis immediately countered: "The Cardinal's secretariat should also have noticed the increasing number of reports proving that Communist elements have allied themselves with Catholic circles active in politics."

JEW HARBOR HIT
The Jews, with only one-half of the per cent of the total population to pit against the close-ranked forces of Nazism, have borne the brunt of the campaign and seen scores of their numbers hustled off to jail or pilloried in the press as traitors to the German fatherland.

But the Catholics have not been spared bitter attacks in the press, with Chancellor Hitler's own newspaper, the Volkische Beobachter, joining in today with attempted justification of charges that the Vatican concordat has been violated.

FIGHT CAUSE VIELED
Efforts to determine the actual reason for the Nazis' surprising campaign against the Catholic church met with failure.

General conclusion was reached that they felt some cause had been found and Communism was added upon as the handout.

The most sensational anti-Jewish development of the day was warning by Berlin authorities to Jews fleeing into the capital to escape persecution in the provinces that the usual avenues of relief would be closed to them if they are unable to support themselves.

New York Seethes At Mayor's Stand
By Associated Press
New York, July 31—New York Jewish and German elements renewed protest and counter-protests today over the attitude of Mayor LaGuardia and incidents of alleged religious persecution in Germany.

The mayor was denounced at two mass meetings of German-Americans last night as an "instigator of race hatred."

He was praised at a meeting of Jews of German origin. The Commonwealth, a Catholic weekly, demanded editorially that Catholics boycott the Olympic games to be held in Berlin in 1936.

Figure in International Incident

(Picture from International News Photograph Service) PAUL W. KRESS

The mysterious "Mr. K." of New York, who was turned down by Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia for a masseur's license, has been revealed as Paul W. Kress, a German who has taken out first citizenship papers. Kress hopes to become a good citizen and plans to take his case to the courts.

WOMAN TELLS JENSEN DEALS

Miss Anna E. Wilbur of Springfield was the leading witness at today's SEC hearing on the Andrew Jensen & Company stock brokerage concern. She testified she had not received stock which she had purchased.

She said she originally ordered the stock from the A. E. Gibbs Company of Springfield but that concern transferred her account to the Jensen company when it closed its doors.

She said she was informed by the Jensen concern that there was a debit balance against her and she paid it with funds borrowed from the Telephone Operators Credit Union. She said she had received letters informing her the stock was registered in her name but she could obtain no satisfaction when the stock delivery.

John T. Hull of Brookline, son of the director of the securities division of the public utilities department who was recently indicted with Andrew Jensen for alleged larceny and operating a racket shop, was expected to testify today.

DUTCH SCHULTZ Case Nears Jury

Malone, N. Y., July 31 (AP)—Summons in the trial of Arthur "Dutch" Schultz, Flegenheimer began today with defense counsel charging the government had actually tried the Bronx beer baron as a racketeer and not as an income tax evader.

Private individuals claim the cost of living has gone up 30 per cent. Official announcements claim prices are only "slightly higher."

Statistics of the Institute for Business Research reveal prices of farm products have increased from the index figure of 107 in 1932 to 110.3 in 1935.

Friends of Dr. Hyman Schachtel, president of the Reichsbank and regarded as the outstanding conservative in Nazi ranks, insisted that under no circumstances would Reichsfuhrer Hitler yield to the pressures of the radicals and retire the internationally known banker, in whose hands virtually rode the economic fate of the nation.

U. S. Asks Report On Flag Ripping

Washington, July 31—A report from Governor Herbert Lehman of New York on a crowd's action in ripping the Nazi flag from the liner Bremen was awaited today by the State Department. The department has received from Germany a demand that the demonstrators be punished.

Meanwhile, Mayor LaGuardia said he would see to it that those involved in the incident of last Saturday would be prosecuted. He criticized the officers of the Bremen, however, on the ground they did not co-operate in advance with the New York police.

High Living Costs Peril 'Nazi Unity'

Private individuals claim the cost of living has gone up 30 per cent. Official announcements claim prices are only "slightly higher."

Statistics of the Institute for Business Research reveal prices of farm products have increased from the index figure of 107 in 1932 to 110.3 in 1935.

Friends of Dr. Hyman Schachtel, president of the Reichsbank and regarded as the outstanding conservative in Nazi ranks, insisted that under no circumstances would Reichsfuhrer Hitler yield to the pressures of the radicals and retire the internationally known banker, in whose hands virtually rode the economic fate of the nation.

John T. Hull of Brookline, son of the director of the securities division of the public utilities department who was recently indicted with Andrew Jensen for alleged larceny and operating a racket shop, was expected to testify today.

HOTEL BURNS In Great Barrington

Great Barrington, July 31 (AP)—Woodbine Cottage, a 15-room summer hotel on the Monterey road a mile and a half from here, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early today. Damage was estimated at $20,000.

The building was owned by George Targenton and was unoccupied.

3 Die, 1 Hurt in Seaplane

Vancouver, B. C., July 31 (AP)—Three persons are dead and one critically injured as the result of a seaplane crash at Alta Lake 50 miles north of here.

RED BARES U. S. SHIP STRIKE WORLD PLOT

By International News Service
Moscow, July 31—World-wide co-operation of shipping workers in "baited out" by the Communists for a strike of "unprecedented scope" due to begin on the American Pacific coast in September, Samuel Darcy, American delegate, told the Communist International Congress.

He said the strike would begin when the agreement between western ship owners and port workers expires. He declared:

"The result of the strike depends not alone on the work we carry on along the Western Coast."

"We count on the fact that through the efforts of all sections of the Communist International, close co-operation of sailors and port workers of all countries in a general decisive struggle against the bourgeoisie will be guaranteed."

Ship owners, the American continued, are already preparing a struggle to eliminate revolutionary leadership from the sailors' and port workers' labor union.

"But revolutionary leadership will not voluntarily retreat from its position," he concluded.

'New Deal'

Because her husband struck her three times, when she asked another woman to stop dancing with him at the Roosevelt birthday ball in Haverhill last January, Mrs. Beulah E. Smith is free today.

Judge Edward B. O'Brien granted her a divorce, custody of her 14-year-old daughter, Eleanor, and $30 a week alimony from Daniel C. Smith, wealthy cement manufacturer and former president of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce.

Congress Surrender Hit By 500 at Faneuil Hall

Resolutions condemning Congress for its "unconditional surrender" of its powers to President Roosevelt were adopted by unanimous vote at a non-partisan meeting of 500 persons in Faneuil Hall.

The meeting, called by an amalgamation of some 20 patriotic societies for "defense of the Constitution," was presided over by Mrs. Anna C. M. Tillinghast, former commissioner of immigration here.

Speakers included Mrs. Mabel C. Batchelder, Republican national committee woman; Mrs. Alfred S. Williams, vice-chairman of the Republican state committee; Congressman Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire; Mrs. Henry R. Caraway of New York, president of the National Women's Republican Club and former Congresswoman John J. Douglass of Boston.

The resolutions also demanded that "members of Congress cease to enact legislation" and pledged the group to active resistance of any amendments to the Constitution which "directly or indirectly endanger inalienable rights and liberties of the people, or the sovereignty of the states or the United States Supreme Court."

Congressman Tobey declared that in the coming presidential campaign, the sole issue of the people would be to retain the traditional form of our government or to surrender to "one individual."

Mrs. Caraway scored the experiments at Washington and asserted that they now stand revealed as "blatant planning," "brazen and hypocritical," "headless haste" and "attempts to destroy the constitution."

Former Congressman Douglass declared that the trend towards bureaucracy in Congress during the later part of the 10 years he was in Washington was particularly noticeable.

Personality Push Up Oil
Permanents
Craquelaine or Spiral
Regular $10 value
4
Complete

Former Congressman Douglass declared that the trend towards bureaucracy in Congress during the later part of the 10 years he was in Washington was particularly noticeable.

Our $1.00 Value—Expert Shampoo & Finger Wave 50c

Artiste Shoppes
310 Dexter Building, 453 Wash. St.
See Jordon Bank. Open All Day, Every Day.
With or Without Appointment—Open Evenings

WALK-OVER

White Shoe

White Shoe $4.95

Pumps - Straps - Ties

Also some of our finest grades formerly to $10.50 including some $6.95 Cubanes.

All Sales Final—No Mail Orders

WALK-OVER

Women's White Shoes, some with Brown trim at a drastic reduction because of a few incomplete sizes. Pumps—Straps—Ties—shoes that were formerly 6.50 to 8.50, now 4.95. Shop early for the best selection.

BOSTON:
170 Tremont St.—378 Washington St.
ROXBURY: 2359 Washington Street

I'm for the ONE that's Milder...

And tastes better

Chesterfield CIGARETTES
LIBBETT & HYMAN TOBACCO CO.

ECGONOMIST WARNS U. S. MUST PRESERVE OWN LIBERTY

This is the first of a series of articles by Warren M. Persons, consulting economist, an economic aspects of the New Deal.

A graduate of Wisconsin University, Mr. Persons taught public finance, taxation and banking at Dartmouth College from 1906 to 1910, served as financial consultant to the National Monetary Commission in 1910 and in 1916.

In 1916 he went to Harvard University as exchange professor of economics, served during the war as consulting economic adviser to the U. S. Shipping Board. In 1918, he returned to Harvard as professor of economics, remaining there until 1928. Since then he has been a consulting economist in New York City.

By WARREN M. PERSONS
Noted Consulting Economist
Former Professor of Economics at Harvard University
(Copyright 1935, by Universal Service)

Washington, July 31—Two threats constantly menace democracy—the rule of the few and the rule of the mob. The Greeks had a name for it. Oligarchy is the rule of the few. Ochlocracy, a fearsome word, is the rule of the mob.

Both oligarchy and ochlocracy thrive on stupidity, gullibility, cupidity, venality, prejudice, intolerance, unenlightened self interest. Politicians who exploited these qualities in the citizens of the Greek Republic were called demagogues.

Both the name and the thing are riding high abroad, they are today at home.

In Europe demagogues promised the people more social justice, better government. They delivered autocracy, dictatorship, blood, torture, secret trials and executions for political offenses, suppression of economic, intellectual and religious freedom, muzzling of the press.

Demagogues become autocrats, resent criticism, suppress it, then, enervate the critics. Thus they justify their regime.

In the United States, demagogues promise the people impossible Utopias and panaceas. They selfishly promise to distribute more income than the nation possesses. They offer "national economic plans," with themselves as planners. They would fix prices and control what we produce and what we consume.

They offer plans to "soak the wealthy" which will ruin both rich and poor. They promise more employment but make it difficult or impossible for private enterprise to expand and create jobs.

Today, the radio, the talking screen, the press carry the messages of present day prophets, false and true, to the four corners of the land. The United States has no censorship of ideas, speech and the press are free. This is the safeguard of democracy and of the Republican form of government. This is our priceless heritage which we must preserve.

From the ideas and proposals presented to them the electorate must select issues. The issues confronting our democracy are being re-stated. The voters must decide what issues are paramount. They must choose the candidates who can be depended upon to honor promises issued, political parties, candidates. But the greatest of these is the issue.

From the avalanche of issues which has tumbled upon us during the last few years there appear, at first sight, only confusion. Party lines have been disrupted. Party and personal promises have been abandoned. But gradually, out of the confusion, the paramount issue is becoming more and more clearly defined.

The greatest political issue of which we can conceive is the preservation of economic freedom, individual liberty of speech and action, and our form of government. This issue, appearing in many aspects and disguises, promises to be paramount in the years immediately ahead. Let it be defined.

If the real issue behind the deluge of complicated and bewildering proposals is the abandonment of our form of government, let us know it and align ourselves according to our convictions. Above all, let us avoid changing our form of government inadvertently without knowing what we are doing.

Let us force the autocrats, whether they be Nazis, Fascists or Soviets, to come into the open. If we do vote to change our form of government, let us do it by voting for candidates who define the issue and who will keep their promises.

Issues overshadow candidates. But candidates, if elected, must be trusted upon to carry out mandates based on issues.

It is essential that voters choose intelligently among candidates as well as among issues. They must penetrate and uncover the cocksureness, buncombe and baloney of the demagogue, on the one hand, and the caution, hard-headedness and dependability of the statesman, on the other.

Democracy thrives upon the intelligence of its citizens, upon their skepticism, realism, fairness, honesty, enlightened self-interest.

Such citizens do not forever swallow the bait of impossible panaceas or of promises of immediate personal advantages at the expense of their permanent interests. Such citizens may be fooled part of the time, but not all of the time.

As a nation we have the power to mould the economic and political system within which we get our living. Individually and collectively. Enlightened self-interest dictates that we mould a system that induces private enterprise to create jobs and encourages workers to work in them.

This is an issue which overshadows the personalities of political candidates. It is for the candidates not to promise benefits which cannot be delivered, but to promise cautiously and to deliver what they have promised.

Truck Fall Fatal

Lawrence, July 31—Timothy Sullivan, 40, of Cross street, is dead here today as the result of injuries sustained when he fell from the rear of a street department truck.

Woman Routs House Wreckers

Today, the second in succession, Mrs. Christina Hoven routed ERA wreckers who had been ordered by the city building department to demolish her home in Cabot street, Roxbury, because it is unsafe.

Mrs. Hoven, her husband and two children, occupying the third floor, are the only occupants of the building and claim to possess a receipt showing rent paid up to August 15.

The building wreckers, again refusing admission to the Hoven flat, hung round dismally without doing any work for several hours, then appealed to police.

Police said there was apparently nothing they could do about it until August 15 and the workmen departed.

A court order condemning the structure and evicting the Hovens may be sought.

MODEL SHOT,

Suitor Dies in Row

Los Angeles, July 31 (AP)—Lover's jealousy was blamed today for the near-fatal shooting of a 37-year-old artist's model and the purported suicide of her wealthy suitor.

The wounded woman, given "an even chance to live," was Agnes Joan Parker. The dead man is Harry Mierach, 42, retired.

You can see Barbara Holmes daily from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. at the new free rental bureau on the fourth floor of the R. H. White Co.

PATMAN WARNS A. L. OFF BONUS

Washington, July 31 (AP)—The American Legion-Patman bonus split, which gave a new twist to the unsuccessful bonus fight in this session of Congress apparently is to be carried to the organization's fall convention in St. Louis, Mo.

Rep. Patman, whose bonus bill was turned down by the American Legion this year in favor of the Vinson plan, let it be known today he would demand at the convention that "the national commander stay out of politics."

PAYS NICKEL TO DIE

5-Cent Chivalry Costs Man's Life

By Associated Press

Brooklyn, July 31—A man who parted with a nickel today to be chivalrous ended by paying with his life.

William Burke, 34, arrived with Miss Georgiana O'Brien at the Maratoga avenue station on the Fulton Street Elevated. He found he had a single 5-cent piece. His companion had no money.

"Take this," he said, airily offering his lone nickel. "I'll ride. Wait and see."

Miss O'Brien slid the coin into the slot.

Burke descended to the street and began a 100-foot climb up a pillar. Just as he was about to grasp the platform and swing up to it he slipped and plunged to the street. He died two hours later.

79 Entombed By Mine Blast

By International News Service
Ermelo, Transvaal, July 31—Four Europeans and 75 natives were buried alive today in a colliery explosion here.

It was feared all would be dead before rescuers reached them.

Runs Over Baby

Cranston, R. I. July 31—A driverless automobile rolled down a hill, plumed through a hedge and fatally injured Louis Misto, 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Misto, of this city.

Moley Sees Huge Roosevelt Sweep

New York, July 31—Raymond Moley declared today that "President Roosevelt will be returned to office by an overwhelming vote" in 1936.

Moley, who is editor of the magazine "Today," returned on the Monarch of Bermuda from a ten-day vacation in Bermuda.

"Fired" at Roosevelt is the only man in the field," he said when asked to comment on the political outlook.

"There isn't a person that could be put up that would have the slightest chance of defeating him."

ONE HALF MILLION DOLLAR

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

August Coat Sales.

84 years of sound business judgment . . . of New England's confidence in our quality integrity . . . and of expert experience in fur and fur-trimmed coat buying—all make a Jordan Marsh Company label in your coat a guarantee of quality and satisfaction.

Squirrel! Raccoon! Muskrat!
Hudson Seal-dyed Muskrat!

FUR COATS

If you prefer our budget plan $10 first payment—balance in 9 equal monthly payments!

$100

Natural back muskrat! Shimmering silver muskrat! Rich, black Hudson seal-dyed muskrat! PLUS deep furred natural squirrel and beautifully matched raccoons as sketched below. Both full and swagger length in interesting variations from sturdy sporting ones to slim and dress types. The prime, supple pelts speak their own superior quality, all the more desirable at this August Sale price. Sizes 14 to 20.

Lapin Swagger Coats—an outstanding SALE feature! Mocha, black, gray or blue fox color

$39.75

FUR SALON—SECOND FLOOR—MAIN STORE

Persian lamb trimming a frieze coat for women, $50.

Sketched lower right: One of the beautifully matched Raccoon coats from a group at $100.

FUR-TRIMMED Sports or Dress Coats $50

If you prefer our Budget Plan $5 first payment—balance in 9 equal monthly payments!

Fine Canadian beaver on camel hair coats! Raccoon, lynx, badger on novelty frieze and tweeds! PLUS kit fox, Persian, beaver and kolinsky in dress coats, as carefully detailed. Misses, juniors, women and little women, all can find exciting values—with $5 the first payment!

Kolinsky, silver fox, Persian, lynx, badger or beaver, on coats for juniors, misses, women or little women at

$66

COAT SALONS—SECOND FLOOR—MAIN STORE

Schenley VACATION WEEK SPECIALS

Come in and learn what the famous House of Schenley offers in quality and low prices.

Your Dealer

SCHENLEY'S GOLDEN WEDDING WHISKY
America's Finest Blend

SCHENLEY'S AMERICAN CREAM A BLENDED WHISKY
RED LABEL-WHITE LABEL

SCHENLEY'S SILVER WEDDING LONDON DRY DISTILLED GIN

SCHENLEY'S CREAM OF KENTUCKY Straight Whiskey
Kentucky's Favorite

OLD QUAKER DISTILLED GIN
$5 PROOF
The Friendly Straight Whiskey

"The fur that warms a monarch, warmed a bear."

Pope was about half right on that, Lynx-Eye philosophized. In this day and age, the fur that warms any a wearer, warmed not bears but humans. Naturally in a lot of cases, the Hare family is eminently respectable. The French branch—the Lapins, for instance—were even very fashionable. But when you find a seal or beaver amazingly low-priced look to see if it isn't maybe touched-up Bunny—and not so low-priced after all.

Our policy of calling every rabbit a rabbit protects your investment.

SOAK THRIFTY TAX ASSAILED BY 250,000

By E. BOLAND HARRIMAN,
Chairman of the Managing Committee of the National Economy League

By Universal Service
New York, July 31—The National Economy League, with its 250,000 members, has today issued an alterable appeal to the tax bill. As a "share the wealth" proposal it is badly misnamed. It should be called "destruction of wealth" legislation.

The league is not opposed to fair taxation, provided the government reduces its expenditures first. Until we succeed in balancing the federal budget, we will not recover from the depression. When the budget is balanced, recovery will come.

If we can read the future from the recent past, the new tax bill is going to mean just so much more money for the government's expenditures.

The new tax bill is going to mean soaking the little fellow—soaking the poor.

To and this depression, there should not be any more taxes of any kind unless they are a definite and parcel of a prompt and definite balancing of the national budget.

California Raps
"Piratical Levis"

By Universal Service
Los Angeles, July 31—Leading organizations of Southern California business men and many individuals are denouncing the members of the House of Representatives with protest against enactment of the proposed "soak-the-thrift" legislation.

Members of these organizations today were following up telegrams sent by their officials with graphic messages of their own. Dr. Harlan Shoemaker, active in movements to secure economy in government, sent the following wire to Senators Johnson and McAdoo and the eight congressmen representing this country:

"Proposed practical levies of new tax legislation are charged by business men of California as robbery of those who are responsible for our progress and prosperity and I join with California Taxation Association and others in demanding such dictatorial malfeasance be curbed by Congress before democracy is destroyed."

Proposed Assailed
As Confiscatory

Rochester, N. Y., July 31—Rochester business men today launched an avalanche of protests against President Roosevelt's "soak-the-thrift" program, urging congressional leaders to hold up the measure.

Here are some views:
Wesley M. Angie, president, Bromberg & Carlson, telephone manufacturing company.

"The Roosevelt tax proposals actually become confiscatory on many points."

Joseph F. Taylor, treasurer, Bausch and Lomb Optical Company.

"The administration tax proposals are far too drastic."

Arthur H. Ingie, president, Consolidated Machine Tool Corporation of America.

"Any tax measure should primarily take balancing of the budget into consideration."

Tax Bill Called
"I Win, You Lose" Plan

Atlanta, Ga., July 31—President Roosevelt's "soak the thrifty" tax legislation today was called a "heads-I-win-tails-you-lose" scheme, which is likely to drive money from creative, job-giving industry into tax free securities.

So declared Samuel Candier Dobbs, Jr., prominent Southern banking authority and former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs.

Seattle Volleys On Gift Tax

Seattle, Wash., July 31—Thronged political difference aside, Seattle men and women joined today in the ringing chorus of protest against the proposed "soak the thrifty" tax plan.

Unopposed opposition to the reported section of the bill levying tax on gifts made by corporations to charity, was expressed by leaders of Seattle private welfare organizations.

"FIRST OVER THE BARS"
—SINCE 1866

HUNTER
BIRMINGHAM

one hand
one price
one quality

HUNTER BATHING SUIT DISTRIBUTION, INC.
New York Office: 44 WALL ST.
Distributed by:
P. Fenton & Co., 65 Fifth St., Boston, Mass.
Graham & Baker, 55-57 Broadway, New York City.
John S. Dean, 442 Atlantic Ave., Boston, Mass.

Women of Massachusetts!

Send a postcard to your President and your Congressmen in protest against the proposed taxes to "soak-the-thrift". These taxes will punish enterprise. They are not intended to balance the budget. They are intended to "reform" America in accordance with "brain trust" views.

THESE TAXES ARE UN-AMERICAN.
PROTEST NOW, AND ASK YOUR FRIENDS TO DO SO.
Send this message:

I protest the "Soak-the-Thrift" program of taxes.
(signed) _____

New York, July 31—The National Economy League, with its 250,000 members, has today issued an alterable appeal to the tax bill. As a "share the wealth" proposal it is badly misnamed. It should be called "destruction of wealth" legislation.

Soak Thrifty Bill to Prove Boomerang, Says Treadway

By ALLEN T. TREADWAY
Representative from Massachusetts, Ranking Republican Member of the House Ways and Means Committee
(Writing Exclusively for Universal Service)

Washington, July 31 (U.S.)—Apparently Congress and its committees are no longer deliberative or representative bodies.

The ways and means committee was instructed on June 19 by a message to Congress from the President to write a tax bill.

In a month's time the Democratic members of that committee have obeyed the President's dictation, except to the extent that it is not a tax bill that would raise revenue commensurate with the extravagant expenditures of the administration.

It is not a social reform bill as it does not comply with the slogan, "Soak the thrifty." This of course was ridiculous at the beginning and is more ridiculous now that the bill has been born.

The method of procedure is in keeping with the dictatorial edict from the White House.

Instead of being a bill of the ways and means committee, it is a bill of a partisan majority, and the majority were handed copies of the bill only this morning and evening.

Information regarding the preparation of the bill reached the minority only through the press and the majority of the committee has changed the figures and rates in each press announcement during the past week.

If the Democratic majority in Congress feels the President in the recommendation he made, certainly no Republican need complain.

I predict that nothing has been done by Congress under the dictation of the administration that will be more of a boomerang to the Democratic party than this misnamed tax bill.

MAN HURLED
Out of Truck

Thomas Burke, 21, of Putnam street, Providence, was seriously injured this morning on the Boston-Providence highway in East Walpole, when a heavy truck and trailer in which he was riding fell the road crashed into a tree and overturned.

More than 300 cases of beer and ale were thrown in the road and destroyed. Walpole police stated they were unable to locate the driver of the truck.

BEER WAR LOOMS
In Fall River

Fall River, July 31—Threats of a beer price war loomed in the Fall River area today. According to Charles A. Harrington, president of the local dealers' Association, outside brewers are trying to "chase in."

POLICE TEST
New Gas Guns

Boston police today are making tests of new combination gas guns made by Congress under the dictation of the administration that will be more of a boomerang to the Democratic party than this misnamed tax bill.

CUT THIS OUT FOR CAPE COD CANAL CRUISE

Thursday, Aug. 1
at reduced rates on the Steamship

STEEL PIER

This coupon when presented at the ticket window of the Cape Cod Steamship Company, Commercial Wharf, Atlantic Ave., near foot of State St., will entitle an adult or a child to one ROUND TRIP ticket on the Cruise at special prices given here.

CHILDREN MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A PARENT OR AN ADULT RELATIVE

ADULTS $1.00
Round Trip

CHILDREN 50c
Round Trip

Each child must have a ticket and MUST be accompanied by a parent or an adult relative.

Boat Sails from COMMERCIAL WHARF, near foot of State Street on Atlantic Ave.

Boat Sails at 10:00 A. M. Returns at 6 P. M.

How U. S. Would Make

30 MILLIONS Look Like 30 CENTS

Washington, July 31—Senator James Couzens, richest man in the United States Senate, is an interesting example of how large fortunes will be decimated by the new "soak the thrifty" tax plan Congress has launched at the insistence of President Roosevelt.

Couzens began as a book-keeper with Henry Ford in the pioneer days of what is now the vast automobile industry.

When Couzens retired from the Ford industry, he sold his stock in the company for $30,000,000.

Couzens' fortune is now $20,000,000. His estate would first pay an estate tax of $3,416,600. This is the existing estate tax law, which is continued by the Roosevelt plan.

On the remaining $16,583,400, the new inheritance tax would be paid. The tax on the first $10,000,000 of it would amount to $1,911,000. On the balance, a tax of

$2,685,000 would be assessed. CUT TO $5,000,000

Thus, total taxes of $54,952,500 would be laid. The Couzens estate of $30,000,000 would be reduced to $5,000,750 by the time Uncle Sam's tax gatherers got through with it.

Mr. Couzens is understood to favor this type of tax.

Mr. Ford, with whom he made his immense fortune, does not believe the government has gone too far. He says that the "share-the-wealth" philosophy is an excuse for the real desire to destroy property.

With property destroyed, employment will be gone, production and consumption will be obliterated and there will be no more wealth to share, Ford asserts.

Ford's wealth is not in money. It is in his plant and equipment, which have afforded employment to as many as 100,000 workers at one time.

When Ford is gathered to his fathers, government agents will proceed to gather the inheritance taxes from his estate. Experts say there will not be enough money to pay the taxes.

The experts say there is not enough money concentrated in any one man to pay the taxes on the organization in this country to take over the Ford properties and to say the operation of them on the successful lines which were the genius of Ford himself.

Result: The great Ford corporation would be dismembered. The plant and equipment would have to be operated by small and competing manufacturers, if operated at all.

SOAK THRIFTY Tax Blasted
By League

Scores of Massachusetts women notified the leaders of the "Minute Women of 1937" movement today that they were writing to the White House in protest against the "soak the thrifty" tax plan of President Roosevelt.

Postcard protests to the President were urged by Mrs. J. Harper Blaisdell of Winchester, one of the founders of the organization.

Indications are that the protest will be widespread and that the Massachusetts Congressmen, as well as the President, will be charged with complicity against the taxes from women of Massachusetts.

Women have been urged by the "Minute Women" group to get others to send protests and the complaints may reach chain letter proportion.

POPE GOES To Summer Home

Vatican City, July 31—Pope Pius, fleeing from the heat of Rome, will leave Vatican late today to go to his summer residence, Castel Gandolfo among the Alban hills.

The Pontiff and several prelates of the Papal Court will leave tomorrow evening in automobiles in order to escape the mid-day heat. The drive to Castel Gandolfo requires about 45 minutes.

O'BRIEN WEAKER
After Court Trip

The strain of a court appearance has weakened Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere, doctors at the Walden Memorial Hospital, Everett, reported today.

The mayor testified in Chelsea court against Bob Jase, New England boxer and alleged attacker, Jase was held in $10,000 for the grand jury.

CHANGE IN SAILING HOUR of BOSTON and NEW YORK STEAMERS

EASTERN STEAMSHIP LINES
Effective MONDAY, AUGUST 5, 1935, these steamers will sail from

BOSTON AND NEW YORK
5:30 P. M. (Daylight Saving Time) instead of 5:00 P. M. (D. S. T.) as at present. (Final 5 P. M. sailing will be Sunday, August 4.)

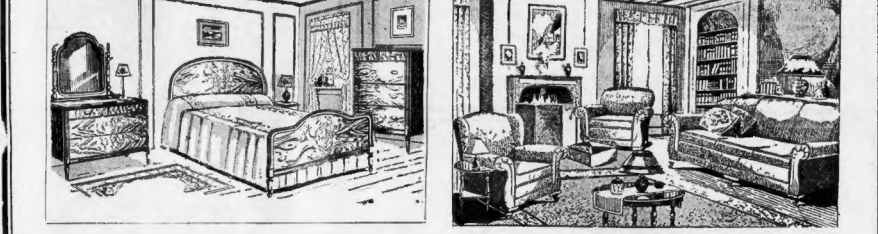

The steamers are scheduled to arrive at New York and Boston the following morning at 8:15 (D. S. T.).

Sailings daily from India Wharf, Boston, 8:45 one-way, $10.00 round-trip, $7.50 week-end excursion, leaving Saturday, returning New York Sunday or Monday night. Roomy staterooms $1.00 up.

78 Boylston St. (Little Bldg.) Tel. LIBerty 3830-3831; 50 Franklin St., Tel. LIBerty 5888; India Wharf, Tel. HANcock 1700.

When in Doubt Buy of Osgood

August Furniture Specials

Vanity Extra $39 to $29.50 Also Post Bed $69.50

Attractive Living Room Regular Price $139.00 Sale Price $98.50

Three Pieces—Easy Terms
This three-piece Living Room Suite; hardwood frames with ten year guaranteed construction, all wood with moss and layer felt filling. Choice of Tapestry Covers.

CROSLY REFRIGERATORS

Twin Studio Couch

Foot Stool Included

1936 Models of Atwater Kent, Philco and Victor Radios are Ready for Your Inspection.

DISCONTINUED & FLOOR SAMPLE RADIOS

Visit Our Newly Furnished Suite of Rooms on Street Floor

Other Evenings by Appointment

The C. E. Osgood Co.

744 Washington St., Boston

Store Open Saturday Until 9 P. M.

State Test Veers To Mathematics

A black and white illustration of a man in a top hat and tuxedo, holding a glass and a cane. He is standing and looking towards the viewer.

HOLLAND

HAIL

Raphaelson as America's Molnar

By GEORGE HOLLAND

A second viewing of "Accent on Youth," this time at Cohasset Town Hall, bore out the conviction long ago formed by this department that Playwright Samson Raphaelson can do more to make a one-act situation into a full length play than any of his contemporaries.

Mr. Raphaelson wrote "The Jazz Singer" which wired the movie for sound. That one laid a dramatic idea, but nothing less than inspired spacing of its big moments, with agile gestures and believable dialogue throughout, laid it off as a show as a whole, drew it out to a three-act play.

The author's "Young Love" was so popular that it found good players, James Rennie, Dorothy Gish, Katherine Willard and a juvenile whose name I forget, were hard put to it to hold an audience for two and a half hours. At that, more known than Mr. Raphaelson, featured in the play's enactment was taken to make it laudable.

Seeing "Accent on Youth" by the South Shore Playhouse, the acting aggregation which Alexander Dene studied with were imported from New York clowns for Cohasset openings, spare your representative to salute Mr. Raphaelson mildly as America's Molnar. The play is so much entertainingly perfect. Benefitted by Kenneth McKenna as the aging playboy who falls in love and is unsure about his charms when pitted against youth, and by the presence also of Claudia Morgan, who acted in "Accent on Youth" with Mr. McKenna at the Plymouth Theatre, New York, Mr. Raphaelson's newest work for the stage becomes a delight.

It violates most formulas for stage-writing by slow-motion action for laughs—let the story advance or remain where it will. A checker-game between a playboy and his master the playwright, and friend of the master's opens the third act and is convulsing. The love-story does not matter while this scene is being played. The play has been played up and down the shore this summer and its story by newspaper recounting, must be as familiar nearly now as Jack and the Beanstalk.

Aside from saluting Mr. Raphaelson for his facility, his engaging playwriting and his adult point of view, this summer's role with the advice to take a trip to Cohasset before the week ends.

Comes to his another opening date—a definite date. "At Home Abroad," starring Beatrice Lillie, will have its premiere Monday, September 2, at the Shubert Theatre, 211 West Broadway, Williams, Eleanor Powell, Eddie Foy, Jr. and Paul Haskin will be in the cast. An actor from England, Reginald Gardiner, will be a featured member of the cast. Miss Lillie elected him as her leading man, but she was later won over by the actor who, under contract, according to advice from his office.

When L. Ranny Weeks of the Coconut Grove goes to get a shot at pictures?

Gayety's Program

The new program at the Gayety tomorrow features "The Sentimental" story of French revolutionary days.

Movie Clock

STATE—"Murder Man" 11:30, 1:30, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
KEITH MEMORIAL—"The 39 Steps" 10:15, 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15, 10:15.
METROPOLITAN—"Broadway Gondolier" 11, 1:45, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
GAYETY—"Bride of Frankenstein" 9:45, 11:45, 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45, 9:45.
UTOPHY—"On the Lamps of China" 11, 1:45, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
PARAMOUNT—"Smart Girl" 10:15, 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15, 10:15.
LORAIN ORPHEUM—"Love Me Forever" 9:30, 11:30, 1:30, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
BOWDOIN—"The Glass Key" 9:30, 11:30, 1:30, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
FINE ARTS—"Once in a Blue Moon" 11, 1:45, 4:30, 7:30, 10:15.
KEITH MEMORIAL—"The 39 Steps" 10:15, 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15, 10:15.
MODERN—"Paris in the Spring" 9:15, 11:15, 1:15, 3:15, 5:15, 7:15, 9:15, 11:15.
SCOTLAND—"Front Page Woman" 10:15, 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15, 10:15.
TREHOUT—"One Exciting Adventure" 10:15, 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15, 10:15.

All Ready to Go to Town

JOHN BOLES SHIRLEY TEMPLE
Shirley is all set for a piggy-back ride on John Boles' broad shoulders in her latest picture, "Curly Top," which comes to the Metropolitan screen Friday.

ABOUT FACES

ART MOGER

100 WINSHIP SWIM SUITS FREE

NOW PLAYING AT THE RKO KEITH MEMORIAL THEATRE

WHAT PLAYER HERE HAS MADE AN AMERICAN MOVIE STAR OF THE SCREEN IN THIS COUNTRY?

We present again!

Again it is our pleasure to draw for you the star who created so phenomenally remarkable a sensation in "The Count of Monte Cristo." He is now appearing, together with a great supporting cast, at the RKO Keith's Memorial Theatre in the hit "The 39 Steps." The rest of the splendid program at the Keith's includes Rayn in the organ console and short subjects.

And again the Boston Evening American, through its daily "About Faces" feature presents this delightful contest. The Boston American gives you the opportunity of winning one of one 100 Winship swim suits and cash prizes. All you have to accomplish is the enjoyable task of filling in the names of the stars drawn for you in the "About Faces" cartoon, and answer the question. Save your solutions until the end of the week and mail them to the "About Faces" editor, Boston Evening American, Boston, Mass. The names of the lucky entrants will be published in this column on Saturday.

Please enclose with your letter a small designating the color and size of the suit you prefer. This is very important, for it must be remembered in this column on Saturday.

GRAND DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS

REVERE BEACH TONIGHT JULY 31

A Great Show! Come Down!

Louella Parsons

Hollywood

Marta Eggerth to Make American Debut

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Motion Picture Editor, Universal Service

(Copyright, 1935, by Universal Service)

Los Angeles, July 31—Surprising that Marta Eggerth, Hungarian songbird and actress who had such a vogue abroad, should prefer to make her debut here in an American story.

She speaks English fluently and without much trace of an accent so Universal agrees with her that the quickest way to win a place with the American public is to appear in a story with an American locale.

Her arrival here and her romance with Jan Kiepura have been so much talked about that it seems needless to say that we first announced that she was coming to Universal, she will get here late in August to be starred in a typically American play, "Song of Joy," by Frank Dougherty and Helen Thompson. Hans Kray is doing the screen play.

Charles Rogers, leader in eight languages, each one with a general appeal, and an actor of buying Universal. He says he is well set at Paramount and gives as his reason for staying on the fact that he has many productions lined up.

"Easy Living" by Vera Caspary (and Charles) is hoping to get Carol Lombard for the lead, is being adapted by Alice Duer Miller, and then there is "The Virginian," Judge and three or four others, so it looks as if Rogers will get well set right at his present location.

That nice holiday in Honolulu that Margaret Lindsay promised herself, with a rest at Waikiki Beach, was cut short by a summons to play the lead opposite James Cagney in "Frisco Kid," Margaret sailed, with her pal, Janet Gaynor, to spend at least a month on the tropic isle.

Ambitious 7 ome players needn't turn up their noses at short. Every day we hear of some actor who made a hit in a short and who later received recognition in a feature. Edgar Kennedy, who "went in" in "Admiral's Family," will now get his chance in "Long Haul," an original story by Arthur T. Horman. Kennedy was given this opportunity by RKO to play in a feature.

At the Esplanade tonight, at the foot of Mt. Vernon street, Arthur Fiedler will conduct fifty members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra in another of the series of free outdoor concerts.

Tonight's program is as follows: Overture to "Der Freischutz".....Wagner Ninth Symphony.....Mahler Irish Riel, "Molly on the Shore".....Granger Retention, "Milk, Milk".....Herbert March, "Up the Street".....Morse

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Screen Beauty in New Role

Lovely Gail Patrick is Ida Lupino's rival in "Smart Girl," which opens at both the Paramount and Fenway tomorrow. Kent Taylor is the lucky man.

pink, the entire luncheon party went next door to meet the MERIAN COOPER baby, who fell for MARLEY'S green beanie and clung to it; then on to the TRIVING THALERS, where KATRINA, all done up with a pink bow on her shoulder, held court.

BEBE DANIELS and BEN LYON, entertaining the LESTER MATTHEWS over the week-end at their beach house; BARBARA REBE, thinking to entertain the crowd, awakened them at six a.m. to go swimming with her; GOLDWYN in white with a huge pink hat, MIRIAM HOPKINS in time between blonde CLAUDE WINSTON and ESTELLE TAYLOR, all three in a party at the Century Club and having a grand time. Oh, all today. See you tomorrow!

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Sisters As Love Rivals

"Smart Girl," with Kent Taylor, Ida Lupino and Gail Patrick in featured roles, comes to the screens at both the Paramount and Fenway tomorrow.

The new program also offers "Bull Hat Kid," co-starring Lew Ayres and Mae Clarke, with Paul Kelly and William Harrigan among the principals.

The not unkind of story of two sisters, both in love with the same man, forms the plot for "Smart Girl," with some new and unusual surprises in store. Miss Lupino and Miss Patrick, blonde and brunette, are the rival sisters. And Kent Taylor the much sought after young man.

Joseph Cassinero, Sidney Blackmer and Pinky Tomlin are in the supporting cast.

Lew Ayres stars in the drama of the "Bull Hat Kid," which concerns itself with the activities of a criminal of shady reputation who runs a hotbed of crime. Ayres is his bodyguard, until he falls in love with his boss' girl friend.

William Harrigan and William Harrigan are also in the cast.

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

Amusements

ADVICE on LOVE by BEATRICE FAIRFAX and NELL BRINKLEY

Bring Peace
Of Mind
To Daughter

Dear Miss Fairfax:

When I was 17 years of age I married a much older man to escape a dreadful home, in which liquor seemed to be the only thing that mattered.

Afterwards I made the discovery that my husband's divorce was not legal, and that I was not his wife in the eyes of the law. I left him immediately, and my daughter was born in a charitable hospital.

One of the lady visitors proved to be an angel to me. She took us into her home and had us educated. I acted as her housekeeper and companion until her death, and she left me a small sum of money. Later I married, more to give my girl a father—hoping he would be that to her than for any other reason.

Though she always supposed he was her real father, they never got along well together, and when she was 18 he told her she was a legitimate child and called her daughter. This turned my daughter against me completely, and she threatened to leave home. She seems to brood a great deal over the fact that her birth was irregular, though I know that it's no fault of mine. If she should leave home, what would become of this poor child? Have you any suggestions?

A MOTHER
In Scandinavian countries, there is no such thing as illegitimacy, and several of our states are taking up the same question. As you married in good faith, not knowing your husband's divorce was illegal, it seems to me that your daughter is unduly sensitive on the question of her birth. Why doesn't she consider what you have done for her, instead of putting her in an institution, as many selfish women have done? Try to make her see this, and that she owes you gratitude, rather than resentment. Can this girl say anything if so, try to instill in her the development of her own character. Remind her that she had a good time and abundance of young people that she has pretty clothes, and above all, remind her that she has never again to ask the question of her birth.

SEEN THE TYPE OF GIRL
HEAD LIKE TO FORGET
DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:
She fascinated me as a child, and she is still so. She is said to be a wild, and she brought out the worst side of my nature, but her hold over me was so complete that I could never break it. Finally, she came—no use telling what it was. No self-respecting man could have held on with such a woman. I told her I was done. She raised a pretty row, but she had no letters, and I had never asked her to marry me.
Even now, I find myself craving her company. FRANK.
Suchness is all that is said in a case like yours. When the complete arises to use this right, do something else. Why not go to see a nice girl; one who is a really good influence over you? And so you were wise enough never to write that letter. I led any compromising letters, or ask her to write that letter. She has no hold over you whatever.

DOES YOUR HUSBAND
CALL YOU
GROUCHY?

He's truthful if he bewitches by your offhandedness and irritability. He can't understand what you have to be blue about. He wishes that you'd snap out of it. He'd do

Mr. Barbara's Compound is a thing he could help you. If he knew how good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was, he'd go straight to the nearest drug store and buy you a bottle.

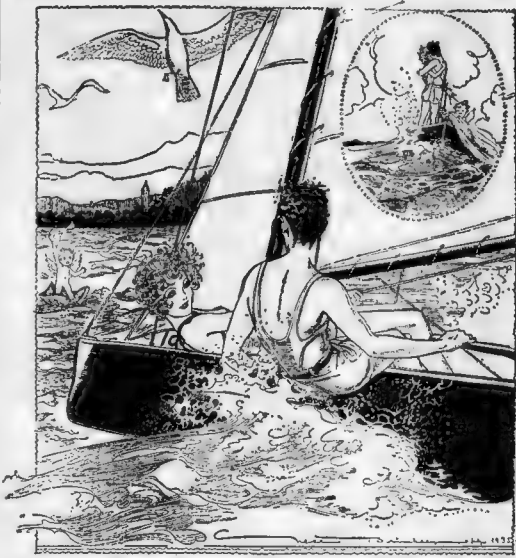

"My husband says I am my old self again," says Mrs. Barbara Spore, 799 Elm Street, Akron, Ohio. "I was tired and ill with no appetite. Had no pep and was in poor spirits. Your Vegetable Compound eliminated these evil, tired feelings."

Don't try your husband's patience too far. Get a bottle from your nearest drug store NOW. It will help you, because nearly a million American women know from personal experience that it helps them.

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Vacations. "Sailing-Sailing!"

By Nell Brinkley

Sailing-sailing right into the waters of the Purple Isle. The idea of Poetry and Romance. And then there more soberly—the Sea of Matrimony and the Home Port.

On the way, they are hailed—it's all a pretense, the need of help for the fair day ahead in a shell—hailed and heeded by a fat Cupid. And from then things happen! Stern, a most overboard with the sail dragging like a washer-woman's skirt over into the blue water, a chance for John to prove to Jane what a lust-hound he is—and how he can get a girl ashore safely with the worst kind of luck against him! Jean puts her fair arms around him and says "MY sailor!"

New John must prove further he is a good sailor for a mere searose craft that he is a real searose shipper who will never desert his ship! For that's the kind of a sailor that Jean thinks she is entitled.

Vacation on the waves on a "15 sq. m." vessel! Helping—giving a hand, leaning hard on the sailing sail. For green shores. The sun like diamonds spilled on the restless water. Food for hungry women. LOVE, above. Food for hungry women—nothing that tangles one up better such dross—dross, and fills the chest with happiness to be alive with one you love.

Martha Lee on Cooking

Delicious Iced Coffee Recipes

From MARTHA LEE's Wednesday Morning Broadcast Over
Radio WAAM

IF WE HAD to choose a national beverage, surely it would be a perfect cup of coffee, hot or cold.

In the summer time our choice naturally is iced coffee.

It should be made of double strength to allow for dilution when poured over a generous cup of crushed ice. The coffee may be made by any of the approved methods—drip, percolated or boiled.

Although most iced coffees are sweener flavored for being made and served immediately, one manufacture of a decaffeinated coffee recommends making the coffee of standard strength and chilling completely before serving.

Coffee may be served plain or with plain or whipped cream. Some like vanilla added to the cream.

Coffee combined with cocoa to give a mocha flavor as in Russian Coffee given below. Always keep a jar of chocolate syrup on hand to mix, not only with this drink, but in ice cream sodas, egg and banana nog.

In fact, coffee can be combined with any milk drink to give a satisfying, nourishing beverage.

ICED RUSSIAN COFFEE
1/4 cup chocolate syrup.
1 cup evaporated milk.
3 cups strong coffee.

Mix chocolate syrup and evaporated milk well. Put in tall glass with ice cubes. Pour strong coffee over mixture. Stir vigorously.

CHOCOLATE SYRUP
4 square chocolate.
2 cups sugar.
Pinch of salt.

1 cup boiling water.
Melt chocolate over hot water, add sugar and salt. Stir well and add boiling water. Cook 5 minutes over direct heat to a syrup. Strain and keep in ice box. Three-quarters cup cocoa may be substituted for chocolate.

BANANA CHOCOLATE
MILKED MILK
1 ripe banana.
1 cup milk.
1/2 teaspoon chocolate malted milk.

1/2 teaspoon vanilla.
Slice or break banana into medium mesh wire strainer. Press through strainer with a spoon. Add other ingredients and mix in a cocktail shaker. Or beat with a rotary egg beater until creamy. Add milk, egg and pineapple juice and beat until smooth.

BANANA PINEAPPLE EGG NOG
1 ripe banana.
1 cup milk.
1 egg.
1 tablespoon canned unsweetened pineapple juice.

Mash banana with a spoon. Beat with a rotary egg beater until creamy. Add milk, egg and pineapple juice and beat until smooth.

Menu
for Tomorrow
BREAKFAST
Crisp and Orange Juice
Whole Wheat Toast
Butter
Coffee

LUNCH
Cold Corned Beef
Potato Salad
Bread and Butter
Apple Pie
Tea (hot or iced)

DINNER
Pan-fried Liver
Creamed Potatoes
Buttered Beans
Bread and Butter
Junket with Blended Fruits
Coffee (hot or iced)

A Difference
OF Opinion

By MRS. CULBERTSON

It sometimes seems remarkable to me that so many arguments can arise over a mere Bridge hand.

Several times during the year in some Bridge playing community, there will be a deal about which the leading local experts disagree.

I can remember receiving fifty or sixty long letters about a single hand, with each correspondent going to great pains to point out his particular point of view.

I am told that today's hand created just such a furor in San Francisco. It was handed to me last week with the request that I give the correct bidding.

I regret to say that though seven notrump could be made on the hand by virtue of a finesse and a suit break, my idea of the correct bidding does not enable that contract to be reached.

South, Dealer

♠ AK986
♥ 8
♦ AK104
♣ AK

♠ 1042
♥ 104
♦ Q72
♣ Q55

♠ A3
♥ AKQ3
♦ Q55
♣ 10954

The bidding:
South West North East
1♣ Pass 2♠ Pass
2♥ Pass 3♥ Pass
4♥ Pass 4NT Pass
5♥ Pass

It will be noted that six notrump, the contract which should be reached, was not even made but entirely safe. It is necessary only to concede a club trick in order to develop twelve winners.

The bidding is interesting only after the second round. South has a diamond suit and North shows a diamond suit. South is turning to spades or simply bidding three notrump.

Three notrump would not express South's added values in the heart suit and the diamond suit. Three spades would probably lead North to think that South might hold adequate support for that suit and it is probable that after determining that South holds two Aces, North would go to seven clubs.

Of course, South might return to seven notrump and be so fortunate as to make it, but I could not recommend it as a final contract on the law of averages.

A six notrump contract South simply wins the opening lead and takes the club finesse.

There is a better chance of the finesse than of finding a 3-3 break in spades and if South explores the possibility of either a 3-3 break or a diamond suit, it will later be unwise for him to take the club finesse.

Beauty
Answers

By THE BEAUTY EDITOR

Question: I have a brown line planning to make the debut right above my nose. How can I get rid of it? I am afraid if I let it go too long that it will be impossible to iron it out. How can I go about it?

Answer: First of all get out the massage cream. Apply liberally and go after the surface of the skin with one finger, sending it in tiny circles. Use the finger as if it were an iron, rubbing, crosswise of the line. Don't forget that frowns are self-inflicted. Though the roof may blow off, keep the brow calm. It is the only way.

Question: My thighs and knees are covered with tiny pimples which I think are goose flesh. I have tried to remove them. I even massaged my thighs with warm olive oil, but it doesn't seem to be doing any good. I have heard of a milk pack that can be made at home by adding honey and water to powdered milk. Have you a recipe for this?

Answer: I am sorry, but I have no recipe for the milk pack which you speak of. I have a One Week Milk Pack for Blackheads and a Two Week Milk Pack for those who are not satisfied for their purpose. The milk pack is a special soap-balm cream for clearing up a goose-flesh condition of the skin. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the name of this cream. Trade names are not mentioned here.

Question: What is the best remedy for a cold sore? I have heard that camphor is the best thing but would like to have your opinion first.

Answer: Cold sores get along when they are not tampered with. Camphor, the old-fashioned remedy, will inflame them, and make them more painful. Peroxide will also act the same way. It is best not to touch them.

Don't L. McK. Boston.

Answer: Cold sores get along when they are not tampered with. Camphor, the old-fashioned remedy, will inflame them, and make them more painful. Peroxide will also act the same way. It is best not to touch them.

Don't L. McK. Boston.

Answer: Cold sores get along when they are not tampered with. Camphor, the old-fashioned remedy, will inflame them, and make them more painful. Peroxide will also act the same way. It is best not to touch them.

Don't L. McK. Boston.

Perfumes for the Home

To Freshen
And Sweeten
The Air

By The Beauty Editor

PERFUMED houses came out of the magnificence of the Gay Nineties—but they exist even in these less romantic times.

One famous brownstone mansion—a relic of the War of the Roses—was the home of the McAllister era—is something of which dreams are made. It has been perfumed for three generations and is fragrant as a breeze.

Those fortunate beings who have been guests within, say that its scent is now a mellow mixture of heliotrope, parquet, and brocade. A fitting background, indeed, for such fine smells as those of quail and old brandy.

Modern hostesses are going in for perfumes this season in a big way. Gradually, but surely, perfumes have gone beyond the luxury stage and are as much a household staple as the flowered centerpiece or the air-conditioner.

If your closet has got to smelling like an inverted tobacco pouch and the whole house has a stuffy, musty smell, why not perfume it once in a while?

The process is simple and really no luxury at all. A famous Paris perfumer, always a step ahead of the times, has just brought out an infusion that is brand new idea in perfume.

It is made from exactly the same formula as his own popular perfume, except it is less highly concentrated. While morning application will doubtless last through the day, it is admittedly has not the same lasting quality, force or tenacity as its highly concentrated cousin. However, its attractive low price makes it admirably suited for a score of uses for which standard perfumes are not adaptable.

POSED BY MISS GRACE BRADLEY.

You have the choice of five distinct fragrances. Any one of these perfumes, hung up in a little porous wall jar will draw away all stuffiness and at the same time perfume the air.

One hostess we know uses it for a temper-scent. And a few drops in the water in which flowers are rinsed will impart a delicate lingering fragrance.

Sprayed or sprinkled about the dining room it removes all food odors.

To perfume the body, it is applied directly to the skin in generous quantities. It is also an ideal hair dressing because it imparts fragrance as well as a glossy sheen.

To learn the name of this all-purpose perfume which may be used for every purpose for which a perfume or toilet water is used, call Juliet Shelby, Liberty 4000, or write to her at the Boston Evening American, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

LAST CHANCE

TO WIN

$25.00 CASH

FOR A

200 WORD LETTER

This is the offer of the American-Advertiser in co-operation with the Boston Real Estate Exchange for the best letter outlining the

"ADVANTAGES OF HOME OWNERSHIP"

Your ideas and views on the subject may appeal to the judges. Jot them down in letter form and send your letter to the Real Estate Contest Editor, 5 Winthrop Sq., Boston, Mass. Letters must be postmarked not later than midnight, July 31.

The contest is being sponsored by the Boston Real Estate Exchange, in co-operation with the American-Advertiser, to stimulate interest in and show the advantages of Home Ownership.

The award will be made by three judges, members of the Boston Real Estate Exchange, whose decision shall be final.

It's Brief—It's Fun—It's Educational!
Send in Your Letter Now—It May Mean $25.00 IN CASH FOR YOU!

Libby Bars Lionizing

MAINE "400"
LAUD HER

By Peggy Doyle

They can't quite make out Libby Holman in Coney's exclusive summer colony. Those who want to inspect her curiously through a gracefully poised loggia remained to applaud and to lionize her.

But Libby, who's pretty handy with a loggia, too, but only because she's near-sighted, won't be lionized.

The former townshaver, who won fame over night, only to reap a harvest of notoriety in connection with the mysterious death of her fabulously wealthy husband, Smith Reynolds, is a strangely exclusive person.

Tourists flock to the Ogunquit Playhouse these summer nights, and it's no secret that Broadway's one-time languorous singer is the reason.

What They Say

"When does Libby Holman come out?" "He that her? Why, she doesn't look like her pictures." "Why, she's real nice looking, isn't she?" "So THAT'S Libby Holman? Isn't she young and attractive?" There are some of the murmured comments that echo through the darkened theater as the play goes on.

Libby herself appears unaware of the future her presence in the quiet little town creates. Just anybody in the company about her, and they'll tell you "Libby's swell."

With her father and mother, the Alfred J. Holmans of Cincinnati, and her son, little Christopher Smith Reynolds, Miss Holman is making her home at Kennelburg Beach.

She has rented Breakwater Court Cottage, not far from South Tarkenton's more extensive and lavish estate.

It is a 15-room, white colonial house with a vermillion-pink tile roof, applegreen shutters and an inviting air of comfort and informality.

Under Guard

But don't let that lure you into drooping in some time, neighbor. Her husky young man, who double as chauffeur, houseman, butler and chef, instantly get into their bouncer stance if you get to feeling too folky.

At Libby's Delaware estate, 11 Great Dunes form an additional guard for their mistress and little "Libby's" palams for her golden-haired, three-year-old son.

The guests are not all glamorous Broadway "names" or the socially prominent who think it's smart to court celebrities.

They are the stagehands, little-known juveniles and inconspicuous members of the cast who have discovered in Libby a stimulating, useful companion and a convincing raconteur.

At the theater, Libby, in navy

LIBBY HOLMAN REYNOLDS
Wants No Plaudits

shorts, a bright yellow or orange shirt, heeled sandals and postage-stamp hat fit for the most casual member of the company.

Between rehearsals and after the show, she leads the attempts to the "Greasy Yacht," an unpretentious little lunch-room across the street from the theater. Here, after the patrons are served the waffles, she likes to listen to on Libby's stories.

"She's a scream and easy as an old shoe," is one Beebe's telltale what would be fairer than that?

FOUL PLAY HINT

In So. Shore Death

Scituate, July 21.—The sea, they say, keeps its secrets, but an autopsy today on the body of a naked Oriental, washed up at Scituate yesterday led authorities to hint at foul play.

Several months ago immigration officers engaged in a drive against the smuggling of Chinese and Japanese into the country. Several boats harboring aliens were off Scituate.

When the autopsy today indicated Oriental birth it was believed probable he had been thrown into the sea from a ship which feared search.

Haines and M. A. Whitney and J. Walker Davis, Jr., all of Boston.

After 30 years of service under the Japanese flag, Captain T. Hamada, commander of the Kokufu fleet, has retired. Captain Hamada was a frequent visitor to this port in the liners Komaki Maru, Kurama Maru and Yurki Maru.

Total imports for immediate consumption at this port for last week show a gain of $180,572 over those for the same period last year. The figures last week, announced today by Collector Joseph A. Maynard, totaled $1,820,000, compared with $1,442,178 a year ago.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

Imports for warehouse last week totaled $109,189 and withdrawals from warehouse $127,691, compared with $228,662 and $181,470 a year ago. Wood imports for last week amounted to $12,247, bringing the total for the fiscal year up to $422,916 pounds.

SAIL SET FOR NORTH SHORE

Another glorious excursion for Boston Evening American readers will be a sail on the steamship Steel Pier tomorrow to Marblehead and Gloucester. This will be a cruise of more than 100 miles.

A coupon, entitling readers to the half-price fare, appears elsewhere in the Boston Evening American today. This coupon lowers the fare for adults to one dollar and for children under twelve to fifty cents.

Each child taking the trip must be accompanied by a parent or an adult relative. The Steel Pier will leave her dock at Commercial Wharf, at the foot of State street on Atlantic avenue, at 10:15 a. m. on Thursday and return at 8 p. m.

Plan a holiday for yourself and your family. Clip the coupon to-day and spend Thursday on the sea, enjoying the cool breezes and the interesting North Shore and Boston harbor sights.

Artist Ball In 'Accent On Hips'

Hips, hips, hooray! That seems to be the slogan for the Marblehead painters' colony ball tonight at the Hotel Marblehead.

Not only will the leading artists of New England be present in-out-of costume—but society will be there to cast an eye and many a compliment.

Beautiful Tahitian costumes, more expensive than extensive, and hula dancers will feature the ball this year, the 20th of the Marblehead series.

At midnight an auction of works by members of the colony will be staged, etchings and paintings going to the highest bidder, and the proceeds to the association.

200 DROWNED

In Korean Flood

Tokio, July 21 (INS).—Two hundred residents of the Korean island of Nakanoshima, in the Yalu River, were drowned by flood waters today.

Hears Tweet

Chicago, July 21.—"This," said Angelo Sireusa, picking up an iron bar he found in the street, "is the way to make a mid-iron shot."

Then he swung lustily as his fist friend watched. The iron struck an automobile driver, then crumpled off Sireusa's head. He was revived in a hospital.

15 Die at Curie House Falls

Warsaw, July 21 (AP).—About 15 persons were killed and 18 injured today when an old house, the birthplace of Marie Curie, co-discoverer of radium, collapsed.

You get quick relief from muscular aches with RUB-INE "Every drop brings relief"

RELIEVES RHEUMATIC AND NEURITIS PAINS, SORE MUSCLES, SPRAINS, TIRED, ACHING FEET

U.S. Considers New Bases in Pacific

Washington, July 21 (INS).—The United States is considering the possibility of fortifying and establishing new naval bases and naval stations in the Pacific after Japan's denunciation of the Washington naval treaty becomes effective. Secretary of the Navy Branson disclosed today.

Quake Rocks Tokio Area

Tokyo, July 21 (AP).—An earthquake shook Tokyo and eight surrounding prefectures today.

PROCESS TAX BAN Sought Here

An injunction to prevent the government from collecting processing taxes of $17,270 was applied for today by the Continental Mills, a Maine corporation with Boston offices on Bedford street. The injunction is asked against Internal Revenue Collector William W. Welch and the application cites the recent decision of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals declaring the tax unconstitutional.

Extremes

Shanghai, July 21 (AP).—Concern over China's flood-stricken millions will take James Cromwell and his bride, the former Doris Duke, over the devastated valley of the Yangtze river. A privately chartered plane will carry the couple, they revealed today, so that Mrs. Cromwell can see at first hand the damage and suffering that results when the Yangtze runs amok.

Save $2-Bring This Ad Limited Time Only

Price will be $5 next week

SELF SETTING

Oil of Almond

Personality Croquignole

Steam Process

Know the joy and satisfaction of powerful Water and Corle as they care for. Aroused with Rinsing on crown or back of head. Moisturizes for future use and the delicate croquignole treatment of their leaving hair no confusion. Don't deter. Quality Work Guaranteed

Dorsey Beauty Salon

West St.—Near Washington

With or Without Appointment

Open Evenings. 8 P. M. to 10 P. M.

Immediate Service

AGAIN

AMERICAN MARCHES AHEAD!

NOW! "AIR-CONDITIONED" AMERICAN GAS

AS the second achievement for its 25th Anniversary, the American Oil Company presents a regular gasoline as new—as modern—and as different as its name—"AIR-CONDITIONED" American Gas.

READ ALL THESE GUARANTEED FEATURES:

"AIR-CONDITIONED": Conditioned at refinery to counteract erratic engine tendencies caused by outside temperature and humidity changes. This guarantees uniform and efficient motor performance in any weather.

CLEAN BURNING: 100% Pure Petroleum Base—No Added Chemicals—100% clean burning—no harmful deposits.

GREATER NET POWER: "Air-conditioned" gasoline plus clean burning guarantees superior performance. Hence, GREATER NET POWER.

HIGHER ANTI-KNOCK: By new processes—without acid treatment—in the world's most modern refinery, we obtain naturally from 100% Pure Petroleum Base a higher anti-knock value than other regular gasolines get artificially by the addition of chemicals to bring up anti-knock alone.

MORE MILES: Greater net power and higher anti-knock rating net more miles to the gallon than any other regular gasoline.

Stop at any Yellow and Black American Gas Pump and fill up your tank with "AIR-CONDITIONED" American Gas. Then keep your car "air-conditioned" with this amazing new "AIR-CONDITIONED" American Gas. Even though it costs us more to produce, it is being sold at regular gas price from Maine to Florida and inland by thousands of American dealers and stations.

© American Oil Company

AIR-CONDITIONED AMERICAN GAS

SILVER ANNIVERSARY GRADE

AMERICAN OIL COMPANY...Also makers of AMOCO-GAS...it's "AIR-CONDITIONED" too!

PHONE NEWS TIPS TO THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

Do you want to make some money for being alert? If so, the Boston Evening American and the Sunday Advertiser are presenting the opportunity. Every week a total of $50 in prizes will be given for news tips telephoned in to the News Tip Editor at Liberty 4000. There will be given $25 weekly for the best first exclusive news tip received, $10 for the next best, $5 for the next best and $1 prizes for each of the 10 next best valuable tips. A news tip is the information that something of interest has occurred.

Longfellow Plans Visit To Moscow Festival

By WILLIAM F. MAGUIRE

Sailing of the Cunard White Star liner Majestic, August 8, will mark the departure from these shores of a gathering of New Englanders bound for the Third Moscow Theater Festival.

William Malby Barber, Babson Park, Wellesley, recently returned from a three year's study of social, industrial and art conditions in Russia, will be among those sailing. Others include Nicholas Rimsky, composer and orchestra leader, and Henry Wardworth Longfellow Dana, grandson of the poet.

GOING CRUISE: Many Bostonians, on their annual vacations, will be among those taking an exit in the Canadian National's liner Lady Drake... Barbados in the British West Indies seems to be calling many tourists... The Misses Frances and Margaret Connolly and Mrs. Connolly will be among those sailing; also the Misses Dorothea Hammon and Mary A. MacKenzie, the Misses M. E. and E. C. Ford, the Misses H. E.

It's always an adventure to visit NEW YORK

EVERY SUNDAY GOING SATURDAY NIGHT RETURNING SUNDAY NIGHT

WEEK DAY EXCURSIONS

PLUMTHURST—$1.00

Tickets good in connection with travel indicated on sale at

THE NEW HAVEN R.R.

AUSTEN LAKE

Wrestling Brothers Riot and Then Pledge New Loyalty

WELL, SIR, YOU NEVER SAW anything like that outside of a jailbreak or a First Ward Ball.

Ed Don George was lying among the tobacco cans, cigar butts and splintered furniture with his stomach aching and looking like he was fit to die in the ring side fifth. Dan O'Mahoney was peering down at him over the ring ropes. Jimmy Braddock was pumping his arms up and down to make sure that George did not sneak back for another helping.

And then the fun began! The wrestling wasn't much as an example of fine art. But the brawl between the janitors, nurses and the militia was a dandy windup, with the brothers pinwheeling and throwing bogus punches and Braddock swinging his Mary Ann.

George Comes Out of Stupor

GEORGE DIDN'T SEEM TO be hurt fifty cents worth, and, when the fun began, he dusted himself off and crawled back on the scaffold, watching the mob scene with detached interest while lacing on his kimono.

If he suffered any qualms at losing his world's gimcrack, which had come to be a family heirloom, he swallowed them gracefully and, after shaking hands with Danno, went home to prepare an affidavit that he was given a Chinese count and would be satisfied with nothing short of a return match.

It was a bore some bout, up to the climax, with the athletes picking nits from each others' backs, manhandling each others' toes and fribbling like twin poppies. But when the boys were an hour and 30 minutes out of port, George picked Danno up like an armful of groceries and spilled him overboard, almost into Governor Curley's lap.

Ring-side friends picked up Danno's legs and helped him mount the gangplank. But George spit at him right back again, and Braddock, as referee, began flailing the arm and counting leisurely, going into fractions and algebra when Danno delayed past the legal limit.

Reunion at Ringside

THIS WAS NOT DANNO'S FAULT, because his new found acquaintances under the ring apron were asking his impressions of America, and the press camera boys were snapping their flash bulbs and asking would he please pose for a profile, and just one more now.

This exasperated Braddock, who was getting pretty tired waving his arms and muttering "19 and an eighth." But by the time Jimmy had reached 18 and 99-100ths, there Danno was again, looking fresh as a baker's pie.

So he reached over and collected George by the armpits and dumped him over the side. And George went down with a big crockery smash and lay like his filling had come loose. The mourners crowded round, and it looked as if a veterinary would be called in to shoot him.

Only this time Braddock did not dally with any fractions and went to hasty counting by fives. Which was just as well. Because George had busted Mr. Jack Conway's chair into bits and if the bout had continued, Jack would not have had any place to sit while strumming his portable typewriter.

The Chorus Comes On

THIS WAS THE CUE FOR the gentlemen's ensemble to dance onto the stage and start blowin' kisses. Mr. Freddy Moran, as Danno's nurse, came out and did a duet with Mr. Farmer McLeod, who was visiting George.

After leap frogging a bit, Messrs. Frank Dellamano, Jack Mc Carthy and other spry came out to fan each other gently and fall in big swarms that were out of all proportion to the sick delivered, some of which did not even land but seemed to blow the boys down by the draft.

Mr. Dellamano took special notice for rushing up to Braddock with his face puckered in a big pout. After clawing the air menacingly and seeming to burst into tears, Mr. Dellamano accepted a careless bat in the puss from Braddock and went down to enjoy a short convulsion.

A Lady Wants to Play, Too

PRESENTLY A LADY SCRAMBLED up on the platform and enquired was there any objection to a member of the gentle sex taking a stack of chips.

This threw a wet blanket on the party, which had been clean up to that time. And not wishing to expose themselves to any female dirty work, the boys ducked behind a cordon of cops, which had moved up under cover of night and charged over the ramparts. By that time the place was a shambles, with hair rumpled and here and there a torn shirttail. The cops had arrived in the nick of time because the unknown lady was winding up her Sunday punch and looking for somebody to wing.

A fat, gloomy looking sergeant fingered the butt of his gun and called nervously on her to surrender, being nervous by the fact that he was under his Governor's eye.

The lady, seeing herself outnumbered, finally gave up, and joined in the round of cheek patting that followed.

The mutineers stopped putting and turned up their smiles, as befitting brothers in the same lodge, and the scene wound up like a ladies' missionary meeting at the rectory.

It was voted a profitable evening, well spent, and everybody was pleased that Danno had been elected and felt that he would make a good president. And, after a resolution thanking George for his able administration as the outgoing top, everybody went home to get a thimble, a crust and a bit of sleep.

NO TITLE BELT FOR DANNO GEORGE SA YES O'MAHONEY COUNTS OUT

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

BOSTON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1935

13

40,000 See Danno Dethrone George in Wild Finish at Braves Field

CHAMP Braddock Mauled; Swings K.O. Punch After Danno Wins

By JACK CONWAY

Dan O'Mahoney, from the little Irish village of Ballydehob, West Cork, Ireland, is today heavy-weight champion of the world as a result of his victory over Ed Don George before 40,000 persons at a Christmas Basket Fund show at Braves Field.

George, knocked through the ropes to the ground by the Irish giant, was counted out by Referee Jimmy Braddock, world heavy-weight boxing champion, after one hour 30 minutes of furious wrestling.

There was a wild riot in the ring following O'Mahoney's sensational victory. Frank Dellamano, George's chief second, started the jam when he rushed at Referee Braddock and pushed him around. Braddock pulled back his right hand and let it fly to Dellamano's jaw. The latter was knocked to the ground.

There was then a free-for-all fight between the seconds of the rival wrestlers. "Farmer" George McLeod, one of George's handlers, and Freddy Moran, Danno's trainer, furnished most of the fireworks.

Jack McGrath, O'Mahoney's manager, and the other seconds, along with a regiment of policemen, added to the excitement by doing a little free punching.

WILD CLOSE

Excited spectators rushed into the ring and joined in the battling. One lady hopped into the ring, and attempted to drag her husband to a safety zone. The lady was ushered out of the ring by two sturdy policemen.

The riot came as a climax to one of the most dramatic endings of a title mat battle. George and O'Mahoney had been battling on fairly even terms. George then started a drive to score with the winning fall. He counted with an inside catch hold and body lift. He threw the young Irishman over the ropes.

Danno landed on the apron of the ring and crashed to the ground. Referee Braddock counted to 14 before O'Mahoney got back into the ring. Under the American Association rules, a wrestler must get Continued on Page 16, Column 7

GINN STRIKERS

Union pressmen, feeders and bookbinders are to begin work again in the East Cambridge plant of the Ginn Publishing Company after a 16-week strike. They have been granted "wage increases from five to ten per cent, a 40-hour week and a "union" shop.

Governor

Extends Thanks

Governor James M. Curley, in behalf of the Christmas Basket Fund of the Boston Evening American and Boston Herald, thanked the 60,000 fans who attended the Christmas Basket Fund show at Braves Field, which was the world championship wrestling bout at Braves Field.

The great American sportsman, Paul Bowser, has donated a liberal share of the proceeds of this great wrestling show to the Christmas Basket Fund of the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser.

"Get away from that $10,000 belt," snarls Ed Don George. Friends of Danno O'Mahoney think George should surrender the costly diamond-studded waistband to Danno, who took George's crown at the Wigwam. "I was robbed," says George, and refuses to part with the belt. He wants another shot at Danno.

Oh what a headache! The woes of a wrestler lie heavy on the shoulders of Ex-Champion Don George as Nurse Hazel Curtin ministers to the somewhat battered matman. Danno was bumped badly, when hurled from the ring like a sack of potatoes by Danno O'Mahoney, at Braves Field. Danno won world heavyweight title, Don won a headache and bruises.

What the Stars Did

By the Associated Press
BENNY FREY, Reds—Singed with two out in ninth to score Jim Bottomley with winning run against Cards.
VERNON (GEORGE) WASHINGTON, White Sox—like homer with one on gave Sox winning margin over Cleveland.

JULIUS SOLTER, Browns—Drove in three runs with homer and two singles to help win 5 to 4.
PAUL RICHARDS, Athletics—Belled homer with one on to beat Yankees 6 to 4.
JOHNNY VERGEZ, Phillies—Drove home's led attack that beat

Giants first game of doubleheader.
RAY SCHUMACHER, Giants—Fanned ten Phillies to win second game.
Johnson Out?
Detroit, July 31—Rogers Hornsby, pilot of the St. Louis Browns, who are playing the Tigers here, is slated to succeed Walter Johnson as Cleveland manager.

Rowe Belted
"Schoolboy" Rowe's fine showing on his last appearance at the Fenix must have been due to the spot he has long held over the Sox. He was knocked from the box by the Browns yesterday. That was his third start since leaving here and on the other two occasions he was chased early.

$57,000 Mat GATE

GROSS RECEIPTS HIT $49,789

By Jack Conway
Ed Don George today refused to surrender to Danno O'Mahoney his $10,000 championship belt which he won when he defeated Henri DeGlane.

"O'Mahoney isn't entitled to the belt and I won't give it to him," George informed Paul Bowser, Boston promoter.

"I heard Jimmy Braddock count O'Mahoney out. He said '20' and I then turned my back on the Irishman. He hit me from behind and knocked me through the ropes.

"I was trying to tell Braddock he had declared me the winner when I was knocked through the ropes for the second time. I wasn't given a fair deal, and I don't see any reason why I should surrender my belt. I am still the champion."

$57,000 GATE

"I shall go before every Athletic Commission in the country, and ask for their backing in my fight to retain my title. Paul Bowser announced that the gross receipts, including money paid for Federal taxes, amounted to $57,000. The net receipts, after deduction of taxes, amounted to $49,789.

This is a new high for recent wrestling shows and beats some of the figures of boom days. O'Mahoney spent the day with relatives in Cambridge. He was in a happy mood and in good condition.

George was at the Hotel Bradford and was outspoken in denouncing the decision that stripped him of his title.

15 ASCOT Horses at 'GANSSETT

By Associated Press
Robert "Red" Howell, young apprentice from Covington, Ky., registered a double on Hug again and Prince Pompey at Suffolk Downs yesterday to widen his lead on the colorful Charley Stevens for the "Bug" riding honors at that new track. Howell's two winners hooded his Boston total to 20 against 16 for the Boise, Idaho, boys.

A special train from Empire City pulled into Narragansett Park yesterday with 25 of the Ascot state's string, 12 head from the H. F. Archibald string and 11 thoroughbreds owned by Colonel W. A. Jones.

The Narragansett Park management announced it had received assurance that Discovery and Omaj's—the turf four and three-year-old champs, each would make but one more start before meeting there in the $50,000 special on August 21. Omaj has been entered in the Travers at Saratoga, and the Vanderbilt colt probably will start in the Saratoga handicap next Saturday or the Merchants and Glenside the following week.

There are 126 jockeys registered at Saratoga, and the list will be greatly increased after the Arlington Park meeting closes Saturday.

CARDS IN Losing Streak

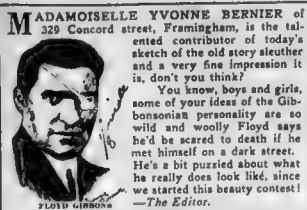

When the world's champion Cardinals were beaten out by the Reds, it was their eighth defeat in the last nine games. Before the slump, they had won 18 out of 28. It was a ninth-inning single by Henry Frey, former Red Sox finger, that gave the Reds the edge.

Billy Werber was out of the Sox lineup. He had some teeth extractions the night before and was ordered to take it easy for a few days. The Sox moved over to third and Max Bishop filled in as second. The Fenway flock has been more than its share of injured casualties this season.

BRAVES FIELD TODAY AT 1:30—TWO GAMES BRAVES vs. BROOKLYN

Start at Adams. Pittsburgh summer 1935

FLOYD GIBBONS' PAGE OF THRILLS AND MYSTERY

MADAMOISELLE YVONNE BERNIER of 329 Concord street, Framingham, is the talented contributor of today's sketch of the old story sleuth and a very fine impression it is, don't you think?

You know, boys and girls, some of your ideas of the Gibbonsian personality are so wild and woolly Floyd says he'd be scared to death if he met himself on a dark street. And a bit puzzled about what he really does look like, since we started this beauty contest! —The Editor.

"Fire on the Veldt"

Friendship Is Born as Flames and Bullets Rake South African Plain

By FLOYD GIBBONS

HELLO, EVERYBODY!

Here comes a yarn that will knock you loose from your goose-pimples. It comes to me from Tom Marclay of 73 Aster court, Brooklyn, N. Y., and it's got all the ingredients of a good old-fashioned melodrama. Everything I there but the awe, and, and, and you've got the British army, a prairie fire and a ton or so of ammunition, all conspiring to snatch the lives of Tom and his sworn enemy, Bill Davidson. So listen to what happened to Tom and Bill in South Africa in the spring of 1902.

It was toward the end of the Boer War, Tom, with about 30 other white men were bossing a gang of Kaffirs who were building roads for the British government about 30 miles north of Pretoria. Some British troops had been through that section of the country a few days before, and to lighten the loads they were carrying had dumped a lot of ammunition on the veldt just outside of the road builders' camp. The whole neighborhood was strewn with the stuff—mostly rifle cartridges, for artillery wasn't used as much in the Boer War as it was later on.

The discarded cartridges were left right where they lay. Nobody thought much about them. But there came a time when both Tom and his enemy, Bill Davidson, showed up that the British soldiers hadn't been so careless.

Bill Davidson was another of the gang bosses at the camp. He and Tom always seemed to be getting on each other's nerves. And one night, during a card game, somebody called somebody else a liar, and the first thing you know, Tom and Bill were outside getting ready to fight.

They decided they'd have their fight out on the veldt, where there would be no one around watching them, and, they started out, walking through the thick grass in a northerly direction from the camp. They hadn't gone more than a couple of hundred yards before they both cooled off considerably and decided that they were just a pair of plain chuckle-heads to be fighting about a darned card game. "Let's take a walk around the kopje," said Bill, "and keep the boys wondering a while."

Tom agreed. They headed for a small hill a short distance away and began to swing around it. They were about half-way around, and completely out of sight of the camp, when, crossing a ridge in the hill, they ran full tilt into a raging veldt fire.

It wasn't anything unusual. The dry grass of the South African veldt often caught fire and burned for days. But as they turned to go back they heard a spattering explosion like the burst of rifle fire, and bullets began whistling past their ears. The fire moved into an area where a lot of discarded rifle ammunition lay on the ground, and the bullets were exploding.

To try to run back would have been suicide. The fire was spreading almost as fast as they could move, and the whole veldt was an inferno of living lead. But a few yards from the hillside was a large rock. They ran for the cover of the rock—made it, and crouched down behind it! They had just reached it a moment too soon, for a second later a veritable barrage of lead whistled over their heads as the fire exploded a fresh bunch of cartridges.

"That rock," says Tom, "saved our lives, but we didn't get through the experience entirely unharmed. As the fire crept around to the other side of us, we were showered with lead from behind. I got a bullet in the left forearm, and then, to make matters worse, the fire began moving up on us, too. It came so close that our hair was singed and our clothes were blackened with soot."

The smoke was choking us, but we didn't dare run for it. Then a bullet got Bill in the left foot, and we couldn't run. We had to stay there until the veldt all around us was burned black as a chimney. Then Bill tied my wounded arm up with a handkerchief and I bandaged up his foot with part of his shirt.

"After that came the struggle to get Bill to the top of the kopje, and what a time I had of it. When we got to the top of the hill, though, the men back in the camp could see us, and some of them came out to get us. After that, my troubles were over."

Tom's troubles were over, but the rest of the men in the camp had a hard time trying to figure out how two birds who had been at each other's throats for months could go through a little veldt fire and hot lead and come out of it the best of friends. From that time on Bill and Tom were buddies, and when, three years later, Bill was killed in a railroad accident outside of Cape Town, Tom felt as though the world had fallen on him. "That jam had been in out there on the burning kopje had cemented a friendship that was only broken by the all-destroying hand of death."

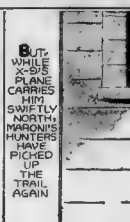

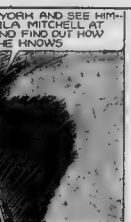

Tomorrow I'm here with a new thriller. RICHARD O. HALLBERG of 23 PRATT ROAD, SQUANTUM, tells of "Sleepwalking Aloft."

It's as easy as just reaching for it—and a heck of a lot more fun. That's what hundreds of Boston American readers say of the $10 and $100 bills they have received from head-hunter Floyd Gibbons for their TRUE adventure stories. Floyd says everybody has had at least one thrilling experience, and he wants to write up yours. Send him the facts, and win a pocketful of dough, like Mrs. Henry W. Gould of Worcester, who drew a $10 check and a $100 prize.

HOW TO WIN
$100.00
And Membership In The Floyd Gibbons Adventurers' Club

It's all very simple. There are no rules, and everyone is eligible. Just write down the facts of your most thrilling adventure and mail it to Floyd Gibbons, care of the Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston. Remember, the story must be TRUE. Don't worry about how well you can write. Floyd will take care of that. Floyd will pay $10 for every story printed and an extra prize of $100 for the best story of the month. Keep a copy of your story if you wish to have it, AS NO STORIES CAN BE RETURNED. Do not send valuable pictures or souvenirs of your adventure. Send the FACTS.

SECRET AGENT X-9

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

RED BARRY

(Follow Red Barry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

The Three Musketeers

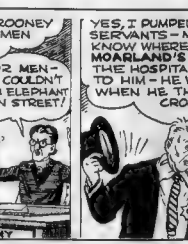

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

The Entertainment Committee

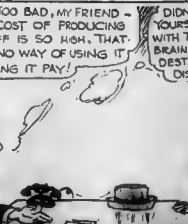

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

An Open-Air Class

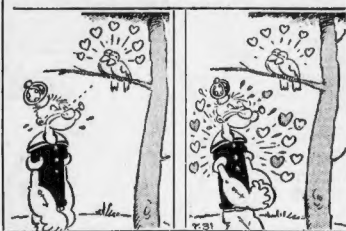

THE LITTLE WOMAN

In Other Words—the Bunk

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

Cross-Word Puzzle By Eugene Sheffer

HORIZONTAL

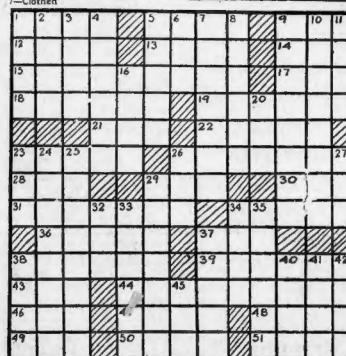

- 1—Upright side of doorway
- 5—Sodium carbonate
- 9—Possessive pronoun
- 11—Auxiliary
- 13—Hostilities
- 14—Birdlike bird
- 15—Ponders
- 17—Peep impertinently
- 18—Machine for sewing
- 19—Cuts
- 21—Wander about
- 22—Mixed gas
- 23—Mean habitation
- 26—Roosting couly
- 28—Salutation
- 29—Length measure
- 30—Devoiced
- 31—Devoiced of covering
- 34—Mud volcano
- 36—Vegetable exudation
- 37—Perceive
- 38—Slow cargo
- 39—Pertaining to ankle
- 41—Belonging to us
- 44—Want of knowledge
- 46—Fury
- 47—Costly
- 48—Lacerated
- 49—Guided
- 50—Brink
- 51—Water pitcher

VERTICAL

- 1—Sticks fast
- 2—Opposite to aweather
- 4—Structure over river
- 5—Constructed
- 6—Turf
- 7—Cereal grass
- 8—Clothing

- 8—Property
- 10—Of superior size
- 11—Violent streams
- 12—Litters
- 13—River duck
- 20—Vessel
- 21—Possessed
- 22—Musical prelude
- 23—Gave a gloss to
- 24—Inches the head
- 25—Driving command
- 27—Failed to follow suit
- 28—Employ
- 29—Apporion
- 30—Scorch
- 31—Charge with gas
- 32—Reserve fund
- 33—Dirt
- 40—Form of precipitation
- 41—Land measure
- 42—To look askance
- 43—Horse

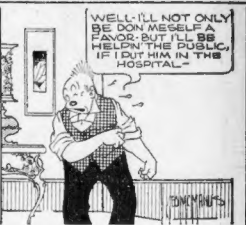

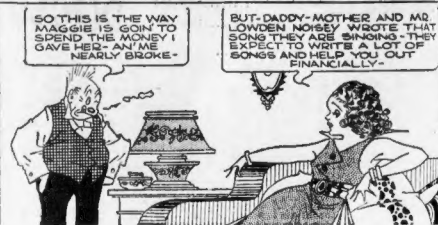

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS

BRINGING UP FATHER

(Follow Jiggs and Maggie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

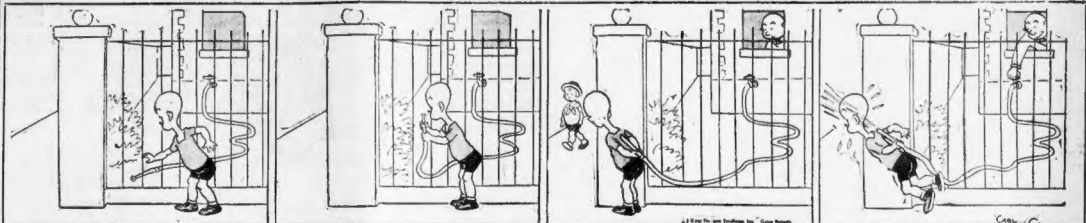

Helping the Public

HENRY

(Follow Henry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Who Owns the Hose?

JUST KIDS

Bitter Sweet

POLLY AND HER PALS

(Follow Polly and Her Pals in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Head First

SKIPPIY

(Follow Skippiy in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Reflections!

LITTLE JIMMY

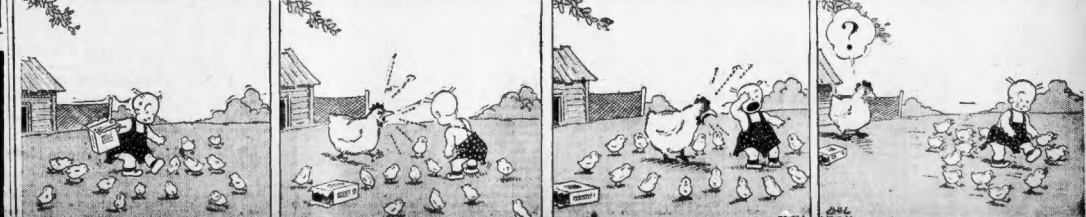

In the Night

BLONDIE

(Follow Blondie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Alienation of Affections

11:00 A. M., WAAB

AUTOMOBILES

130 Automobiles For Sale

AUTOREPAIRS
TIME PAYMENTS

WE REPAIR ALL CARS AND TRUCKS, TIRES, TUBES,
RADIOS, BATTERIES, BODY
AND FENDER WORK,
AND FENDER WORK.

— NO MONEY DOWN —
TERMS TO SUIT YOUR SALARY
WEEKLY MONTHLY
NO FINANCE CHARGES

STRATTON MOTORS, Inc.
912-74 Blue Hill Ave. - Des. Gen. 8503

NO MONEY DOWN
TERMS TO SUIT YOUR SALARY
WEEKLY MONTHLY
NO FINANCE CHARGES

STRATTON MOTORS, Inc.
912-74 Blue Hill Ave., Dor. Cen. 8503

$5 Takes one; includes ins. and plate
58 Ford Coach, very clean... $112
51 Ford Roadster, 1st Luxe... $145
57 clean record, Ford and Chevrolet
Princeton Motors, cor. B'way and Na
Ave., Bensenville

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
 WE PAY MORE THAN OTHERS
 FINANCE CO., 865 Comm. Ave. ALB. 888
 NO CASH—YOUR CAR DOWNS
 Weekly Payments as Low as MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE $3
 THE HENLEY-KIMBALL Co.
 650 BEACON STREET
 NASHUA N. H. CHAMPAIGN

NASH - Two showrooms
"Our Reputation Is Your Protection"
$10 also $43 Comm. Ave. K.R.N. 2488
Open Evenings

Cars Wanted
Call us or drive us. We give you the cash or
2182 COMMONWEALTH AVE. - Tel. 188-8362

NEW TUNES 1050 Comm
30¢ each FIELDS Ave., Boston

HOOD TIRES. No money down
Clancy, Inc., 1250 Boylston St. J.W.

You may win the AUTO PRIZE
Ask Tom Patton.

- For real bargains call KR 4-8888 -

FORD

'32 FORD TUDOR, $185

4 Cyl. Hub Chevrolet, 227 Main St.

$35 DOWN buys '31 Ford Sp. Roadster. Balance to suit purchaser, 30 day guarantee, 980 Mass. Ave. Cambridge, Trn. #416.

T. C. BAKER CO. FORD BROOKLINE
 Better quality cars as low as $4 weekly big variety, market-bottom prices.
 Phone BEAcon 5500.

$365 '33 Ford sedan Delivery. Real value, good running, has been carefully driven and guaranteed.
See Mr. Belgrade, Harvard Auto Co., 221 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Trs. 9460.

$145 down buys '31 FORD VIC. 4 PASS. COUPE. Maroon color only run 12,000 miles. 18 months to pay. Ask quick on this one. NEARDON WOODWARD, INC., 1540 Columbus Ave. Roxbury. Union Sq. Bldg.

31 Ford Business Coupe, motor record, paint and tires perfect.
 Mid. 3997.
$150 Ford 1961 park boy 152-cc. two wheel wheels; ready for work. Marston
 & Sons, 176 Galloway Blvd., Des. Gen. 5602.
$450 '64 Ford Tudor perfect condition. Knox Bros. Motor Co., Pres. 317
 Late model A Ford Tudor Sed., the

OLDSMOBILE

$85 Olds. Sedan, '29, unusual "Box"
45 Brighton Ave. AIG. 9209.

PONTIAC

PONTIAC '35 SEDAN $160

Down. Balance to suit purchaser. Car can be seen today 874 Mann, Ave., Cambridge, Tru. 2116.

$400 Pontiac '33 De Luxe Sedan, 1934 new, real buy, terms, M. C.

STUDEBAKER

$35 DOWN buys '30 Studebaker coupe. Balance to you purchaser, 30 day guarantee. 975 Main Ave., Cambridge. Tel. 5123.

131 Automobile Trucks

'33 Chev. Stake, duals, $330
Perfect. Heaver Motors, Huh. 7100.
'34 Chev. yard and 1/2 hydraulic hoist lift, A-1, "Buy." Mr. Handy, Mr.
Hart.
'32 GMC T-12, Cab and Chassis; 12
duals, etc.; terms. STA dium 2900.

134 Automobiles for Hire
RENT a new car, drive it yourself,
a mile to 6 P. M. 406 Tremont St. BU 4339.

136 Automobile Painting
15 COLUMBIA AUTO PAINTERS
Largest in New England
ANY CAR, ANY COLOR

138 Automobile Insurance
Premiums financed. Reduced rates.
141 Mill St., Rm. 413, Hub. Bldg.

139 Automobile Schools
Dyer's Auto School, 207 W. 4th St.

$5 FOR SHORT COURSE. COMPLETE LICENSE
COURSE: $10. Cars furnished for exam
"MET" AUTO SCHOOL, 360 Tremont St. LI. 145

BOSTON AMERICAN

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Published daily except Sunday and Holidays, 5 Winterport Square, Boston 8, Mass., by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Subscriptions by mail, postpaid, one month, $6; three months, $1.50; six months, $3; one year, $5. Boston Foreign District the month. Domestic rates include postage in the United States, Puerto Rico, Philippines, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Canal Zone, Canada. Mail subscription payable strictly in advance. Rates to foreign countries, one month, $1.50; six months, $5; one year, $12.

The Associated Press is not responsible for typographical errors in advertisements, but will report that part of an advertisement in which the typographical errors occur. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER: ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not credited to it.

wise credited to this paper, and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein and elsewhere are reserved. Copyright, 1904, by the Boston Evening Globe.

